Accessing and Winning contracts from the London 2012 Olympic Games and Paralympic Games

The Greater Cambridge Partnership and Business Link would like to invite you to find out more about contract opportunities arising from the 2012 Games. This event is being specifically targeted towards businesses in the Greater Cambridge area to get the most out of procurement opportunities arising from the Games.

The workshops will give delegates an opportunity to hear more about CompeteFor, the chosen site of London 2012 for the publication of Games-related contract opportunities and is supported by East of England Development Agency, and hear from local authority procurement officers, learning more about alternate business opportunities and processes.
