PART 1 - SUMMARY AND EXPLANATION

1. THE COUNCIL'S CONSTITUTION

- 1.1 Huntingdonshire District Council has a constitution which sets out how the Council operates, how decisions are made and the procedures which are followed to ensure that these are efficient, transparent and accountable to local people. Some of these processes are required by the law, while others are a matter for the Council to choose.
- 1.2 The Constitution is divided into 16 Articles which set out the basic rules governing the Council's business. More detailed procedures and codes of practice are provided in separate rules and protocols at the end of the document.
- 1.3 Article 1 of the Constitution commits the Council to provide a clear leadership in the community in partnership with citizens, business and other organisations; efficient, effective and accountable decision making with the active involvement of citizens; effective representation by Councillors of their constituents; and continuous improvements in service delivery.
- 1.4 Articles 2 - 16 explain the rights of citizens and how the key parts of the Council operate. These are -
- ◆ Members of the Council (Article 2)
 - ◆ Citizens and the Council (Article 3)
 - ◆ the Council meeting (Article 4)
 - ◆ Chairing the Council (Article 5)
 - ◆ Overview and Scrutiny of decisions (Article 6)
 - ◆ the Executive or Cabinet (Article 7)
 - ◆ Regulatory and other Committees and Panels (Article 8)
 - ◆ the Standards Committee (Article 9)
 - ◆ Area Committees (Article 10)
 - ◆ Joint arrangements (Article 11)
 - ◆ Officers (Article 12)
 - ◆ Decision making (Article 13).
 - ◆ Finance, contracts and legal matters (Article 14)
 - ◆ Review and revision of the Constitution (Article 15); and
 - ◆ Suspension, interpretation and publication of the Constitution (Article 16).

2. HOW THE COUNCIL OPERATES

- 2.1 The Council is composed of 52 Councillors. Elections will be held every 4 years from May 2018.

- 2.2 Councillors are democratically accountable to residents of their Ward. The overriding duty of Councillors is to the whole community, but they have a special duty to their constituents, including those who did not vote for them.
- 2.3 Councillors have to agree to a code of conduct to ensure high standards in the way they undertake their duties. The Monitoring Officer trains and advises them on the code of conduct.
- 2.4 All Councillors meet together as the Council. Meetings of the Council are normally open to the public. Here Councillors decide the Council's overall policies and set the budget each year. The Council appoints and holds to account the Executive Leader, the Cabinet and other committees and panels. It is responsible for changes to the Constitution of the Council and the various codes and protocols contained in it.

3. HOW DECISIONS ARE MADE

- 3.1 The Cabinet is the part of the Council which is responsible for most day to day decisions. The Cabinet is made up of the Executive Leader and up to nine councillors appointed by the Council. When major decisions are to be discussed or made, these are published in the Cabinet's Notice of Executive Decisions as far as they can be anticipated. If these major decisions are to be discussed with Council officers at a meeting of the Cabinet, this will generally be open for members of the public to attend except where personal or confidential matters are being discussed. The Cabinet has to make decisions which are in line with the Council's overall policies and budget. If it wishes to make a decision which is outside the budget or policy framework, this must be referred to the Council as a whole to decide.

4. OVERVIEW AND SCRUTINY

- 4.1 There are two Overview and Scrutiny Panels who support the work of the Cabinet and Council as a whole. They allow citizens to have a greater say in Council matters by holding enquiries into matters of local concern. These lead to reports and recommendations which advise the Cabinet and Council as a whole on its policies, budget and service delivery. Overview and Scrutiny Panels also monitor the decisions of the Cabinet. They can "call-in" a decision which has been made by the Cabinet but not yet implemented. This enables them to consider whether the decision is appropriate. They may recommend that the Cabinet reconsider the decision. They may also be consulted by the Cabinet or the Council on forthcoming decisions and the development of a policy.

5. THE COUNCIL'S STAFF

- 5.1 The Council has people working for it (called "officers") to give advice, implement decisions and manage the day to day delivery of its services. Some officers have a specific duty to ensure that the Council acts within the law and uses its resources wisely. A code of practice governs the relationships between officers and members of the Council.

6. CITIZENS' RIGHTS

6.1 Citizens have a number of rights in their dealings with the Council. These are set out in more detail in Article 3. Some of these are legal rights, while others depend on the Council's own processes. Citizens Advice Rural Cambs can advise on individuals' legal rights.

6.2 Where members of the public use specific Council services they have additional rights. These are not covered in this constitution.

6.3 Citizens have the right to -

- ◆ vote at local elections if they are registered.
- ◆ contact their local Councillor about any matters of concern to them.
- ◆ obtain a copy of the Constitution.
- ◆ attend meetings of the Council and its committees and panels except where, for example, personal or confidential matters are being discussed.
- ◆ submit petitions at meetings of the Council.
- ◆ petition to request a referendum for a change of governance arrangements e.g. Mayoral form of executive.
- ◆ contribute to investigations by the Overview and Scrutiny Panels by submitting evidence and comments on the enquiries being undertaken.
- ◆ find out from the Cabinet's Notice of Executive Decisions what major discussions are to be discussed by the Cabinet or decided by members of the Cabinet or officers
- ◆ attend meetings of the Cabinet where key decisions are being discussed or decided; except where, for example personal or confidential matters are being discussed
- ◆ see reports and background papers specified and any record of decisions made by the Council and the Cabinet.
- ◆ complain to the Council about the standard of service provided and any action or lack of action by the Council, its officers or contractors.
- ◆ complain to the Local Government Ombudsman if they think the Council has not followed its procedures properly. However, they should only do this after using the Council's own complaints process;
- ◆ complain to the Council's Monitoring Officer if they have evidence which they think shows that a Councillor has not followed the Council's code of conduct; and
- ◆ inspect the Council's accounts and make their views known to the external auditor.

6.4 The Council welcomes participation by its citizens in its work. For further information on your rights as a citizen please visit the Council's website.

Responsibility for Functions

RESPONSIBILITY FOR FUNCTIONS

SCHEME OF DELEGATION TO COMMITTEES

Introductory Notes

All functions that are not specifically reserved in this constitution to Council, a committee or the Cabinet (formerly known as the Executive) are delegated to Officers in accordance with the Officer Scheme of Delegation set out in this Constitution.

A committee or sub-committee may delegate some of its functions to officers and if so these will be recorded by the Monitoring Officer.

The terms and reference of a committee may provide that a matter need only be referred to the committee if objections or representations have been received or if, for example, the matter or the proposed decision will have a significant, major or material impact or might represent a significant or major departure from certain plans of policies.

In these instances there is discretion to be exercised as to what is major, significant, material or relevant and so whether a particular matter needs to be referred to a committee or not. That discretion is to be exercised by the relevant Corporate Director (or their authorised representative) in consultation with the relevant committee chairperson.

13. PROCEDURE BEFORE TAKING KEY DECISIONS

13.1 Subject to Rule 15 (general exception) or Rule 16 (special urgency) a key decision may not be taken unless:-

- (a) a notice (in the form of a Notice of 'Executive Decisions') has been published in connection with the matter in question;
- (b) at least 28 clear days have elapsed since the publication of the Notice; and

The Head of Paid Service will comply with the Executive Leader's requests in that respect.
- 26 Any member of the Cabinet may require the Head of Paid Service to make sure that an item is placed on the agenda of the next available meeting of the Cabinet for consideration. If he/she receives such a request, the Head of Paid Service will comply.
- 27 The Head of Paid Service will make sure that an item is placed on the agenda of the next available meeting of the Cabinet where a relevant Overview and Scrutiny Panel or the full Council have resolved that an item be considered by the Cabinet.

BUDGET AND POLICY FRAMEWORK PROCEDURE RULES

1. THE FRAMEWORK FOR EXECUTIVE DECISIONS

- 1.1 The Council will be responsible for the adoption of its budget and policy framework as set out in Article 4. Once the budget or a policy framework is in place, it will be the responsibility of the Cabinet to implement it.

2. PROCESS FOR DEVELOPING FRAMEWORK

- 2.1 The process by which the budget and policy framework shall be developed is:-

- (a) The Cabinet will publicise by including in the Notice of Executive Decisions and/or publication at the Council's offices or by other means e.g. on its website or in the local press, a timetable for making proposals to the Council for the adoption of any plan, strategy or budget that forms part of the budget and policy framework and its arrangements for consultation after publication of those initial proposals. The Chair of the relevant Overview and Scrutiny Panel also will be notified. In the absence of the Chair, the Vice-Chair of the relevant Panel will be notified. The consultation period shall in each instance be relevant to the proposals to be considered and sufficient for meaningful consultation.
- (b) At the end of that period, the Cabinet will then draw up firm proposals having regard to the responses to that consultation. If the relevant Overview and Scrutiny Panel wishes to respond to the Cabinet in that consultation process, then it may do so. As the Overview and Scrutiny Panels have responsibility for fixing their own work programme, it is open to an Overview and Scrutiny Panel to investigate, research or report in detail with policy recommendations before the end of the consultation period. The Cabinet will take any response from an Overview and Scrutiny Panel into account in drawing up firm proposals for the submission to the Council, and its report to Council will reflect the comments made by consultees and the Cabinet's response.
- (c) Once the Cabinet has approved firm proposals, the Responsible Financial Officer will refer them at the earliest opportunity to the Council for decision.
- (d) In reaching a decision, the Council may adopt the Cabinet's proposals, amend them, refer them back to the Cabinet for further consideration, or in principle, substitute its own proposals in their place.
- (e) If it accepts the recommendation of the Cabinet without amendment, the Council may make a decision which has immediate effect. Otherwise it may only make an in-principle decision. In either case the decision will be made on the basis of a simple majority of votes cast at the meeting.

- (f) The decision will be publicised within three working days of the meeting in accordance with Article 4 and a copy shall be given to the Executive Leader.
- (g) An in-principle decision will automatically become effective within five working days from the publication of the Council's decision, unless the Executive Leader informs the Head of Paid Service in writing within that period of five working days that he/she objects to the decision becoming effective and provides reasons why.
- (h) In that case, the Head of Paid Service will call a Council meeting within a further 15 working days. The Council will be required to reconsider its decision and the Executive Leader's written submission. The Council may:-
 - (i) approve the Cabinet's recommendation by a simple majority of votes cast at the meeting; or
 - (ii) approve a different decision which does not accord with the recommendation of the Cabinet by a simple majority.
- (i) The decision shall then be made public in accordance with Article 4 and shall be implemented immediately.
- (j) In approving the budget and policy framework, the Council will also specify the extent of virement within the budget and degree of in- year changes to the policy framework which may be undertaken by the Cabinet, in accordance with paragraphs 5 and 6 of these Rules (virement and in-year changes to policy framework). Any other changes to the policy and budgetary framework are reserved to the Council.

3. DECISIONS OUTSIDE THE BUDGET OR POLICY FRAMEWORK

- (a) Subject to the provisions of paragraph 5 (virement), the Executive Leader, the Cabinet, committee of the Cabinet, individual members of the Cabinet and any officers or joint arrangements discharging executive functions may only take decisions which are in line with the budget and policy framework. If any of these bodies or persons wishes to make a decision which is contrary to the policy framework, or contrary to or not wholly in accordance with the budget approved by full Council, then that decision may only be taken by the Council, subject to paragraph 4 (urgent decisions outside the budget and policy framework) below.
- (b) If the Executive Leader, the Cabinet, committee of the Cabinet, individual members of the Cabinet and any officers or joint arrangements discharging executive functions want to make such a decision, they shall take advice from the Monitoring Officer and/or the Responsible Financial Officer as to whether the decision they want to make would be contrary to the policy framework, or contrary to or not wholly in accordance with the budget. If the advice of either of those officers is that the decision would not be in line with the existing budget and/or policy framework, then the decision must be referred by that body or person to the Council for decision, unless the decision is a matter of urgency, in which case the provisions in paragraph 4 (urgent decisions outside the budget and policy framework) shall apply.

4. URGENT DECISIONS OUTSIDE THE BUDGET OR POLICY FRAMEWORK

- (a) The Executive Leader, the Cabinet, a committee of the Cabinet, an individual member of the Cabinet or officers or joint arrangements discharging executive functions may take a decision which is contrary to the Council's policy framework or contrary to or not wholly in accordance with the budget approved by full Council if the decision is a matter of urgency. However, the decision may only be taken:-
 - (i) if it is not practical to convene a quorate meeting of the full Council; and
 - (ii) if the Chair of a relevant Overview and Scrutiny Panel agrees that the decision is a matter of urgency.

The reasons why it is not practical to convene a quorate meeting of full Council and the Chair or the relevant Overview and Scrutiny Panel's consent to the decision being taken as a matter of urgency must be noted on the record of the decision. In the absence of the Chair of a relevant Overview and Scrutiny Panel, the consent of the Chair of the Council, and in the absence of both, the Head of Paid Service or his/her nominee's consent will be sufficient.

- (b) Following the decision, the decision taker will provide a full report to the next ordinary Council meeting explaining the decision, the reasons for it and why the decision was taken as a matter of urgency.

5. VIREMENT

- 5.1 (a) The Code of Financial Management in Part 4 of this Constitution includes provisions which set out the rules for moving monies between budgetary allocations including contingencies (virement).
- (b) Steps taken by the Executive Leader, the Cabinet, a committee of the Cabinet, an individual member of the Cabinet or an officer or joint arrangements discharging executive functions to implement Council policy shall not exceed those financial allocations to each budget head. However, such bodies or individuals shall be entitled to vire resources as follows:-

- (i) within a service at the discretion of the relevant head of service; and
- (ii) between services and/or defined activities up to £50,000 in any financial year at the discretion of the Cabinet.

52 In all other cases virement will require the approval of the Council.

6. IN-YEAR CHANGES TO POLICY FRAMEWORK

6.1 The responsibility for agreeing the budget and policy framework lies with the Council, and decisions by the Executive Leader, the Cabinet, a committee of the Cabinet, an individual member of the Cabinet or officers or joint arrangements discharging executive functions must be in line with it. No changes to any policy and strategy which make up the policy framework may be made by those bodies and individuals except those changes:-

- (a) which will result in the closure and discontinuance of a service or part of service to meet a budgetary constraint;
- (b) necessary to ensure compliance with the law, ministerial direction or government guidance; or
- (c) in relation to the policy framework in respect of a policy which would normally be agreed annually by the Council following consultation, but where the existing policy document is silent on the matter under consideration.

6.2 In each case a report on the action taken will be reported by the Cabinet to the next ordinary meeting of the Council.

7. CALL-IN OF DECISIONS OUTSIDE THE BUDGET OR POLICY FRAMEWORK

- (a) Where an Overview and Scrutiny Panel is of the opinion that an executive decision is, or if made would be, contrary to the policy framework, or contrary to or not wholly in accordance with the Council's budget, then it shall seek advice from the Monitoring Officer and/or Responsible Financial Officer.
- (b) In respect of functions which are the responsibility of the Cabinet, the Monitoring Officer's report and/or Responsible Financial Officer's report shall be to the Cabinet with a copy to every member of the Council. Regardless of whether the decision is delegated or not, the Cabinet must meet to decide what action to take in respect of the Monitoring Officer's report and to prepare a report to Council in the event that the Monitoring Officer or the Responsible Financial Officer conclude that the decision was a departure, and to an Overview and Scrutiny Panel if the Monitoring Officer or Responsible Financial Officer conclude that the decision was not a departure.

- (c) If the decision has yet to be made, or has been made but not yet implemented, and the advice from the Monitoring Officer and/or the Responsible Financial Officer is that the decision is or would be contrary to the policy framework or contrary to or not wholly in accordance with the budget, the Overview and Scrutiny Panel may refer the matter to Council. In such cases, no further action will be taken in respect of the decision or its implementation until the Council has met and considered the matter. The Council shall meet within 10 working days of the request by the Overview and Scrutiny Panel. At the meeting it will receive a report on the decision or proposals and the advice of the Monitoring Officer and/or the Responsible Financial Officer. The Council may either:-
- (i) endorse a decision or proposal of the executive decision taker as falling within the existing budget and policy framework. In this case no further action is required save that the decision of the Council be minuted and circulated to all Councillors in the normal way; or
 - (ii) amend the Council's Code of Financial Management or policy concerned to encompass a decision or proposal of the body or individual responsible for that executive function and agree to the decision with immediate effect. In this case no further action is required save that the decision of the Council be minuted and circulated to all councillors in the normal way; or
 - (iii) where the Council accepts that the decision or proposal is contrary to the policy framework or contrary to or not wholly in accordance with the Council's budget, and does not amend the existing framework to accommodate it, require the executive decision taker to reconsider the matter in accordance with the advice of either the Monitoring Officer and/or Responsible Financial Officer.

- 8.1 The Overview and Scrutiny Panels must respond as soon as their work programme permits to requests from the Council and, if it considers it appropriate, the Cabinet to review particular areas of Council activity. Such requests will be put in writing to the Chair of the relevant Overview and Scrutiny Panel. Where a request is agreed to, the Overview and Scrutiny Panel shall report their findings and any recommendations back to the Council and/or Cabinet. - 12.2 Nothing in this paragraph prevents more detailed liaison between the Cabinet and an Overview and Scrutiny Panel as appropriate depending upon the particular matter under consideration.

13. MEMBERS AND OFFICERS GIVING ACCOUNT

- 13.1 An Overview and Scrutiny Panel may scrutinise and review decisions made or actions taken in connection with the discharge of any Council functions. As well as reviewing documentation, in fulfilling the scrutiny role a Panel or its Chair (or in his/her absence, the Vice-Chair) may require any member of the Cabinet, the Head of Paid Service and any senior officer to attend before it to explain in relation to matters within their remit:-

- (a) any particular decision or series of decisions;
- (b) the extent to which the actions taken implement Council policy; and/or
- (c) their performance;

and it is the duty of those persons to attend if so required.

- 13.2 Where any member or officer is required to attend an Overview and Scrutiny Panel meeting under this provision, the Chair (or in his/her absence, the Vice-Chair) of that Panel will inform the Democratic Services Team Leader. The Democratic Services Team Leader shall inform the member or officer in writing giving at least 5 working days' notice of the meeting at which he/she is required to attend. The notice will state the nature of the item on which he/she is required to attend to give account and whether any papers are required to be produced for the Panel. Where the account to be given to the Panel will require a report to be produced, the member or officer concerned will be given sufficient notice to allow for preparation of that documentation.

attendance to take place within a maximum of two months from the date of the original request.

- 13.4 Where an Overview and Scrutiny Panel is reviewing work of the Council which is not a function of the Cabinet, it should not normally scrutinise individual decisions made by the Council or any committee or panel thereof, particularly decisions in respect of development management, licensing, registration, consents and other permissions. In making reports and recommendations on functions which are not the responsibility of the Cabinet, such reports and recommendations should normally be used as part of wider policy reviews.

- 16.1 The call-in procedure set out above shall not apply where the decision being taken by the Executive Leader, the Cabinet, an individual Member of the Cabinet, a committee of the Cabinet or a key decision by an officer with delegated authority from the Cabinet or under joint arrangements is urgent. A decision will be urgent if any delay likely to be caused by the call-in process would seriously prejudice the Council's or the public's interests. The record of the decision and the notice by which it is made public shall state whether in the opinion of the decision-making person or body, the decision is an urgent one and therefore not subject to call-in. The Chair of the relevant Overview and Scrutiny Panel or in his/her absence the Chair of the Council must agree both that the decision proposed is reasonable in all the circumstances and to it being treated as a matter of urgency. In the absence of both the Chair of the relevant Overview and Scrutiny Panel and the Chair of the Council, the Head of Paid Service or his/her nominee's consent shall be required. Decisions taken as a matter of urgency must be reported to the next available

3. 'BEST VALUE' AND SOURCING POLICY

3.1 The Council seeks 'Best Value' in all procurement activity. 'Best Value' being:

- ◆ The opportunity to obtain leverage (better prices and) for volume.
- ◆ Transparent and efficient procurement processes.
- ◆ Appropriate social, environmental and equality outcomes
- ◆ Regulatory compliance.
- ◆ Minimum procurement overhead.

3.2 Achieving 'Best Value' needs valid competition and valid competition is dependent on the existence of an 'open' market with the selected contractors having the interest, capability and capacity for the work or business being offered. Wherever possible a minimum of three competitive tenders or quotations shall be sought. In selecting contractors to provide a tender or quotation Managers shall ensure that wherever possible –

- a) the selection process used is fair and equitable, and that no favouritism is shown to any one contractor (e.g. the requirement is not an extract of a contractor's product specification).
- b) checks are made to ensure that contractors are interested in this type of business;
- c) repeat or 'automatic' invitations to the 'same' contractor or group of contractors are avoided, particularly where previously invited to bid and had failed to do so;
- d) 'new' contractors are sought and invited to tender or quote;
- e) the geographic area of the search for potential contractors is widened; and
- f) 'no-bids' are checked for the reasons for a contractor's failure to bid.

- 33 Sourcing policy is determined by the needs of 'Best Value' and in order of preference is:
- a) Adopted catalogues or framework contracts. An adopted catalogue or framework is the preferred contract for the Council's business within a defined category (a type or group of goods or service). The Procurement Manager shall make available adopted catalogues or framework contracts on the TechOne FMS or publish details of the contract or framework in Procurement Protocols & Guidelines. Managers shall ensure that orders for such categories are placed through the TechOne FMS using appropriate 'adopted' catalogue or framework contract. The Procurement Manager shall keep under review the continued suitability of any such catalogues, contracts or framework agreements.
 - b) Collaborative procurements with other public bodies or authorities.
 - c) Council let corporate contracts.
- 34 Some categories are managed corporately by specialist areas. The Procurement Manager shall provide a list of specialist categories and Managers shall ensure all requirements for such categories are referred to the relevant specialist.

Market Sounding

- 35 Market engagement is encouraged to help achieve Best Value through trying to understand the market, the suppliers, their business models and their costs.
- 36 Supplier Meetings/Briefings. To avoid the risk of unfair competitive advantage, any such meeting should be structured as an open event; all questions and answers recorded and with a minimum of 2 officers present. If pre-competition a minimum of 3 suppliers shall be invited and during a competition, all participating contractors shall be invited.

4. METHODS OF ORDERING

- 4.1 All orders shall be placed through one of the following recognised methods:

- ❖ A purchase order raised on the TechOne financial management system.
- ❖ A procurement card order.
- ❖ A manual purchase order.

- 4.2 Where there is an exception requirement and the relevant Senior Leadership Team member considers that the work is of an emergency nature necessary to enable the service to continue and none of the ordering methods are suitable, an alternative method may be used. The details of the exceptional requirement and the action taken must be recorded for future audit purposes.

5. CONTRACTS REGISTER

- 5.1 In compliance with the Local Government Transparency Code 2013, Managers shall keep a record using the Contracts Register, for all tenders and quotes greater than £10,000 (and subsequent contract extensions); of:

- ◆ the reasons (if appropriate) for not advertising on the Council's 'Latest Opportunities' internet site;
- ◆ all those contractors that were requested to quote or tender;
- ◆ the reasons why those particular contractors were selected to quote or tender;
- ◆ if applicable, the reasons why less than three contractors were selected to quote or tender;
- ◆ if the selected contractor is a Small or Medium Enterprise, voluntary or third sector organisation or charity;
- ◆ if the selected contractor is VAT registered;
- ◆ contract renewal date (if appropriate);
- ◆ summary details of a single tender/quote (if appropriate), and
- ◆ file or other reference to the contract and location of the documents and contract.

52 Any procurement estimated to exceed £100,000, which is not covered by the exceptions in paragraph 6 below, must be referred to the Procurement Manager before the procurement process is commenced. If a Manager does not wish to accept the Procurement Manager's advice on any significant aspect the matter will be determined by the relevant Corporate Director / Assistant Corporate Director. The discussion will cover:

- ◆ Scope and objectives of the procurement;
- ◆ Budget and costing;
- ◆ Tender methods;
- ◆ Product and market information;
- ◆ Timescales; and
- ◆ Deliverables.

53 Where there is no adopted contract or framework, Managers shall, wherever practicable, seek to maximise contract values with other Managers to secure lower costs. The Council nevertheless wishes to balance the effort of going to the market with the effort and efficiency of the procurement process. Managers after determining the proposed contract's total value shall then follow one of the procurement procedures detailed below. These procedures shall be used in all procurements or sales bar those exceptions at paragraph 6.

	Procedure	Estimated Total Value of Procurement	Requirement
(a)	Estimate	Up to £10,000	At least 1 written estimate or offer (email, web or paper) shall be sought and recorded.

(d)	WTO tender	The WTO Threshold and above	The appropriate UK procurement directive shall be complied with.

54 Total value is the cost of all elements of the procurement (e.g. installation, testing, training, maintenance, etc). The Manager shall ensure that a procurement is not split or otherwise disaggregated and may choose to competitively tender requirements less than £100,000.

55 A Manager shall not invite quotations or tenders from any contractor or sub-contractor who has participated in the preparation of documentation or were involved in other preparatory work for the contract, unless they have, in writing, explained to the Monitoring Officer why this does not constitute an unfair competitive advantage or a conflict of interest and obtained agreement, in writing, that the contractor/sub-contractor may compete in the quote/tender process.

6. TENDER AND REQUEST FOR QUOTATION PROCEDURES

6.1 Exceptions. Nothing in this Code shall require tenders/quotes to be sought:

- a) for purchases made from a Public Purchasing Body (ESPO, PRO5, Crown Commercial Service) where:
there is a single supplier 'call-off contract' or catalogue created with fixed prices, or the contract is created to our requirements;
- b) for purchases through local authority, government body or agency, police, health or other similar public authority, where the procurement rules of that organisation have been approved by the Procurement Manager and the contract is created in co-operation, agreed joint requirements or partnership;
- c) for purchases made at public auction.

- 62 Provided that a compliant procurement process is underway a contract may be extended to complete procurement and contract negotiations by up to 3 months subject to agreement of the Procurement Manager.

 - ◆ the initial contract award was compliant with this Code;
 - ◆ the renewal is for a period not greater than 4 years (this is the time interval used to calculate contract value for ongoing contracts);
 - ◆ the total ongoing value does not exceed the WTO threshold.
 - c) where a single expression of interest is received for a competition run in accordance with the quote procedures (paragraphs 5.3 (a) & (b)) provided that:
 - ◆ a clear description of the requirement has been advertised (paragraph 2.2) for an adequate period;
 - ◆ the sole prospective supplier is kept unaware of their status;
 - ◆ the process for seeking the quote is compliant.
 - d) where a new extension is proposed to a contract awarded under quote procedures (paragraphs 5.3 (a) & (b)) provided:
 - ◆ the value of the proposed and all previous extensions to the contract are:

65 Monitoring Officer Approval. An AD/ Head of Service after consulting the Monitoring Officer may obtain a single tender or quotation when no satisfactory alternative is available:

- (a) Prices are wholly controlled by trade organisations or government order and no reasonably satisfactory alternative is available.
- (b) Specialist consultants, agents or professional advisers are required and
 - ◆ there is no satisfactory alternative; or
 - ◆ evidence indicates that there is likely to be no genuine competition; or

- (d) With the Monitoring Officer's agreement, considers that it is in the Council's best interest in negotiating a further contract for works, supplies or services of a similar nature with a contractor who is currently undertaking such work and is reported to the next meeting of cabinet.
- (e) For reasons of interoperability/interchangeability or substantial duplication of costs.

66 If the single quote/tender option is used, the Manager shall:

- (b) retain records that demonstrate that the best price or value for money has been obtained from the negotiations with the contractor.

7. LIST OF APPROVED TENDERERS

7.1 Tenders shall be invited from at least three contractors selected from an approved list established in accordance with this paragraph of the Code. Vetting is not normally required as the contractor was vetted to join the list.

7.2 The Council uses 2 types of list of approved contractors:

- (a) Third party vetted lists of contractors that are compiled and maintained by an external organisation. Only external organisations approved by the Procurement Manager, after consultation with other relevant Manager(s) shall be adopted. The Procurement Manager shall ensure that the external organisation and approved list of contractors is detailed in Procurement Protocols & Guidelines.

- 7.3 Subject to approval as required in paragraph 7.2(b) the Manager shall:
- (a) issue a public notice inviting applications for inclusion on a specific approved list for the supply of goods, services or materials.

8.2 No public notice is required and general Terms & Conditions are set in the original framework contract but additional Terms & Conditions specific to the requirement may be permitted. Vetting is not normally required as the contractor was vetted as part of the original framework competition.

8.3 When advertising any contract or framework, Managers shall name any wholly publicly owned Local Authority Trading Company (LATC) if relevant to the contract.

132 Managers shall not use Contractor's documentation to order, acknowledge, instruct to proceed or make any other commitment where the documentation makes any reference to the Contractor's T&Cs. Except where permitted at paragraph 13.1, if a contractor formally insists on trading on T&Cs other than the Council's T&Cs, the Procurement Manager shall be informed.

133 In the case of any contract likely to exceed £100,000 for the execution of works or for the supply of goods, services or materials, the Manager after consulting with the Procurement Manager and the Monitoring Officer shall consider whether the Council should require security for its due performance and shall either certify that no such security is necessary or shall specify in the specification of tender the nature and amount of the security to be given. In the latter event, the Council shall require and take a bond or other sufficient security for the due performance of the contract.

134 Managers shall produce the final version of all contracts in 2 copies. 14. LETTERS OF INTENT

14.1 Letters of intent provide a contractor with the authority to proceed prior to the award of a contract. However, letters of intent have two main disadvantages:-

- (a) if the contract is not awarded the contractor is entitled to payment regardless as to whether the work was actually needed;
- (b) the Council's negotiating position is weakened as the contractor may believe actual award of contract is a formality and therefore, the contractor may refuse to accept conditions that are seen as disadvantageous.

14.2 Managers shall ensure that:-

- (a) all letters of intent are in a form approved by the 3Cs Head of Legal Practice; and
- (b) all letters of intent are signed by the appropriate Budget Manager with sufficient authority for either the value of the intended contract or the estimated value of any 'extension' period defined in the letter of intent if below £100,000, otherwise by the Assistant Director, Corporate Services.

18.1 Managers shall ensure that every contract or quotation is assigned the Unique Reference Number (URN) from the Contract Register, which is to be used in all correspondence. Any Division or reference may be included in addition to the URN shall comprise abbreviation for the Division and year. Formal amendments to a contract or order should also be given unique numbers showing the order in which the amendments were made.

18.2 Documentation retention periods are dictated by the Statute of Limitations and (where applicable) EU requirements. The following rules apply:-

Part 5

Codes and Protocols

CODE OF CONDUCT FOR MEMBERS

Based on LGA Model Councillor Code of Conduct

Introduction

The Local Government Association (LGA) has developed this Model Code of Conduct, in association with key partners and after extensive consultation with the sector, as part of its work on supporting all tiers of local government to continue to aspire to high standards of leadership and performance. It is a template for Councils to adopt in whole and /or with amendments.

All Councils are required to have a local Councillor Code of Conduct.

The LGA will undertake an annual review of this Code to ensure it continues to be fit-for- purpose, incorporating advances in technology, social media and changes in legislation. The LGA can also offer support, training and mediation to councils and councillors on the application of the Code and the National Association of Local Councils (NALC) and the county associations of local councils can offer advice and support to town and parish councils.

Definitions

For the purposes of this Code of Conduct, a “councillor” means a member or co-opted member of a local authority or a directly elected mayor. A “co-opted member” is defined in the Localism Act 2011 Section 27(4) as “a person who is not a member of the authority but who

- a) is a member of any committee or sub-committee of the authority, or;
- b) is a member of, and represents the authority on, any joint committee or joint subcommittee of the authority; and who is entitled to vote on any question that falls to be decided at any meeting of that committee or sub-committee”.

For the purposes of this Code of Conduct, “local authority” includes county councils, district councils, London borough councils, parish councils, town councils, fire and rescue authorities, police authorities, joint authorities, economic prosperity boards, combined authorities and National Park authorities.

Purpose of the Code of Conduct:

The purpose of this Code of Conduct is to assist you, as a councillor, in modelling the behaviour that is expected of you, to provide a personal check and balance, and to set out the type of conduct that could lead to action being taken against you. It is also to protect you, the public, fellow councillors, local authority officers and the reputation of local government. It sets out general principles of conduct expected of all councillors and your specific obligations in relation to standards of conduct. The LGA encourages the use of support, training and mediation prior to action being taken using the Code. The fundamental aim of the Code is to create and maintain public confidence in the role of councillor and local government

General principles of councillor conduct:

Everyone in public office at all levels; all who serve the public or deliver public services, including ministers, civil servants, councillors and local authority officers; should uphold the Seven Principles of Public Life, also known as the Nolan Principles.

Building on these principles, the following general principles have been developed specifically for the role of councillor.

In accordance with the public trust placed in me, on all occasions:

- I act with integrity and honesty
- I act lawfully
- I treat all persons fairly and with respect; and
- I lead by example and act in a way that secures public confidence in the role of councillor.

In undertaking my role:

- I impartially exercise my responsibilities in the interests of the local community
- I do not improperly seek to confer an advantage, or disadvantage, on any person
- I avoid conflicts of interest
- I exercise reasonable care and diligence; and
- I ensure that public resources are used prudently in accordance with my local authority's requirements and in the public interest.

Application of the Code of Conduct:

This Code of Conduct applies to you as soon as you sign your declaration of acceptance of the office of councillor or attend your first meeting as a co-opted member and continues to apply to you until you cease to be a councillor.

This Code of Conduct applies to you when you are acting in your capacity as a councillor which may include when:

- you misuse your position as a councillor
- your actions would give the impression to a reasonable member of the public with knowledge of all the facts that you are acting as a councillor;

The Code applies to all forms of communication and interaction, including

- at face-to-face meetings
- at online or telephone meetings
- in written communication
- in verbal communication
- in non-verbal communication
- in electronic and social media communication, posts, statements and comments.

You are also expected to uphold high standards of conduct and show leadership at all times when acting as a councillor.

Your Monitoring Officer has statutory responsibility for the implementation of the Code of Conduct, and you are encouraged to seek advice from your Monitoring Officer on any matters that may relate to the Code of Conduct. Town and parish councillors are encouraged to seek advice from their Clerk, who may refer matters to the Monitoring Officer.

Standards of councillor conduct:

This section sets out your obligations, which are the minimum standards of conduct required of you as a councillor. Should your conduct fall short of these standards, a complaint may be made against you, which may result in action being taken.

Guidance is included to help explain the reasons for the obligations and how they should be followed.

General Conduct

1. Respect As a councillor–

- 1.1 I treat other councillors and members of the public with respect.
- 1.2 I treat local authority employees, employees and representatives of partner organisations and those volunteering for the local authority with respect and respect the role they play.

Respect means politeness and courtesy in behaviour, speech, and in the written word. Debate and having different views are all part of a healthy democracy. As a councillor, you can express, challenge, criticise and disagree with views, ideas, opinions and policies in a robust but civil manner. You should not, however, subject individuals, groups of people or organisations to personal attack.

In your contact with the public, you should treat them politely and courteously. Rude and offensive behaviour lowers the public's expectations and confidence in councillors.

In return, you have a right to expect respectful behaviour from the public. If members of the public are being abusive, intimidatory or threatening you are entitled to stop any conversation or interaction in person or online and report them to the local authority, the relevant social media provider or the police. This also applies to fellow councillors, where action could then be taken under the Councillor Code of Conduct, and local authority employees, where concerns should be raised in line with the local authority's councillor- officer protocol.

2. Bullying, harassment and discrimination As a councillor:

- 2.1 I do not bully any person.
- 2.2 I do not harass any person.
- 2.3 I promote equalities and do not discriminate unlawfully against any person.

The Advisory, Conciliation and Arbitration Service (ACAS) characterises bullying as offensive, intimidating, malicious or insulting behaviour, an abuse or misuse of power through means that undermine, humiliate, denigrate or injure the recipient. Bullying might be a regular pattern of behaviour or a one-off incident, happen face-to-face, on social media, in emails or phone calls, happen in the workplace or at work social events and may not always be obvious or noticed by others.

The Protection from Harassment Act 1997 defines harassment as conduct that causes alarm or distress or puts people in fear of violence and must involve such conduct on at least two occasions. It can include repeated attempts to impose unwanted communications and contact upon a person in a manner that could be expected to cause distress or fear in any reasonable person.

Unlawful discrimination is where someone is treated unfairly because of a protected characteristic. Protected characteristics are specific aspects of a person's identity defined by the Equality Act 2010. They are age, disability, gender reassignment, marriage and civil partnership, pregnancy and maternity, race, religion or belief, sex and sexual orientation.

The Equality Act 2010 places specific duties on local authorities. Councillors have a central role to play in ensuring that equality issues are integral to the local authority's performance and strategic aims, and that there is a strong vision and public commitment to equality across public services

3. Impartiality of officers of the Council As a councillor

3.1 I do not compromise, or attempt to compromise, the impartiality of anyone who works for, or on behalf of, the local authority.

Officers work for the local authority as a whole and must be politically neutral (unless they are political assistants). They should not be coerced or persuaded to act in a way that would undermine their neutrality. You can question officers in order to understand, for example, their reasons for proposing to act in a particular way, or the content of a report that they have written. However, you must not try and force them to act differently, change their advice, or alter the content of that report, if doing so would prejudice their professional integrity.

4. Confidentiality and Access to Information As a councillor:

4.1 I do not disclose information:

- a. given to me in confidence by anyone
- b. acquired by me which I believe, or ought reasonably to be aware, is of a confidential nature, unless
 - i I have received the consent of a person authorised to give it:
 - ii I am required by law to do so;

- iii. the disclosure is made to a third party for the purpose of obtaining professional legal advice provided that the third party agrees not to disclose the information to any other person; or
- iv. The disclosure is:
 1. reasonable and in the public interest; and
 2. made in good faith and in compliance with the reasonable requirements of the local authority; and
 3. I have consulted the Monitoring Officer prior to its release.

4.2 I do not improperly use knowledge gained solely as a result of my role as a councillor for the advancement of myself, my friends, my family members, my employer or my business interests.

4.3 I do not prevent anyone from getting information that they are entitled to by law.

Local authorities must work openly and transparently, and their proceedings and printed materials are open to the public, except in certain legally defined circumstances. You should work on this basis, but there will be times when it is required by law that discussions, documents and other information relating to or held by the local authority must be treated in a confidential manner. Examples include personal data relating to individuals or information relating to ongoing negotiations

5. Disrepute

As a councillor

5.1 I do not bring my role or local authority into disrepute.

As a Councillor, you are trusted to make decisions on behalf of your community and your actions and behaviour are subject to greater scrutiny than that of ordinary members of the public. You should be aware that your actions might have an adverse impact on you, other councillors and/or your local authority and may lower the public's confidence in your or your local authority's ability to discharge your/its functions. For example, behaviour that is considered dishonest and/or deceitful can bring your local authority into disrepute.

You are able to hold the local authority and fellow councillors to account and are able to constructively challenge and express concern about decisions and processes undertaken by the council whilst continuing to adhere to other aspects of this Code of Conduct.

6. Use of position As a councillor:

6.1 I do not use, or attempt to use, my position improperly to the advantage or disadvantage of myself or anyone else.

Your position as a member of the local authority provides you with certain opportunities, responsibilities, and privileges, and you make choices all the time that will impact others. However, you should not take advantage of these opportunities to further your own or others' private interests or to disadvantage anyone unfairly.

7. Use of local authority resources and facilities

As a councillor:

7.1 I do not misuse council resources.

7.2 I will, when using the resources of the local authority or authorising their use by others:

- a) act in accordance with the local authority's requirements; and
- b) ensure that such resources are not used for political purposes unless that use could reasonably be regarded as likely to facilitate, or be conducive to, the discharge of the functions of the local authority or of the office to which I have been elected or appointed.

You may be provided with resources and facilities by the local authority to assist you in carrying out your duties as a councillor.

Examples include:

- office support,
- stationery,
- equipment such as phones, and computers
- transport

These are given to you to help you carry out your role as a councillor more effectively and are not to be used for business or personal gain. They should be used in accordance with the purpose for which they have been provided and the local authority's own policies regarding their use.

8. Complying with the Code of Conduct As a councillor:

8.1 I undertake Code of Conduct training provided by my local authority.

8.2 I cooperate with any Code of Conduct investigation and/ or determination.

8.3 I do not intimidate or attempt to intimidate any person who is likely to be involved with the administration of any investigation or proceedings.

8.4 I comply with any sanction imposed on me following a finding that I have breached the Code of Conduct.

It is extremely important for you as a councillor to demonstrate high standards, for you to have your actions open to scrutiny and for you not to undermine public trust in the local authority or its governance. If you do not understand or are concerned about the local authority's processes in handling a complaint you should raise this with your Monitoring Officer

Protecting your reputation and the reputation of the local authority

9. Interests

As a councillor:

9.1 I register and disclose my interests.

Section 29 of the Localism Act 2011 requires the Monitoring Officer to establish and maintain a register of interests of members of the authority .

You need to register your interests so that the public, local authority employees and fellow councillors know which of your interests might give rise to a conflict of interest. The register is a public document that can be consulted when (or before) an issue arises. The register also protects you by allowing you to demonstrate openness and a willingness to be held accountable. You are personally responsible for deciding whether or not you should disclose an interest in a meeting, but it can be helpful for you to know early on if others think that a potential conflict might arise. It is also important that the public know about any interest that might have to be disclosed by you or other councillors when making or taking part in decisions, so that decision making is seen by the public as open and honest. This helps to ensure that public confidence in the integrity of local governance is maintained.

You should note that failure to register or disclose a disclosable pecuniary interest as set out in Table 1, is a criminal offence under the Localism Act 2011.

Appendix B sets out the detailed provisions on registering and disclosing interests. If in doubt, you should always seek advice from your Monitoring Officer.

10. Gifts and Hospitality As a councillor:

10.1 I do not accept gifts or hospitality, irrespective of estimated value, which could give rise to real or substantive personal gain or a reasonable suspicion of influence on my part to show favour from persons seeking to acquire, develop or do business with the local authority or from persons who may apply to the local authority for any permission, licence or other significant advantage.

10.2 I register with the Monitoring Officer any gift or hospitality with an estimated value of at least £50 within 28 days of its receipt.

10.3 I register with the Monitoring Officer any significant gift or hospitality that I have been offered but have refused to accept.

In order to protect your position and the reputation of the local authority, you should exercise caution in accepting any gifts or hospitality which are (or which you reasonably believe to be) offered to you because you are a councillor. The presumption should always be not to accept significant gifts or hospitality. However, there may be times when such a refusal may be difficult if it is seen as rudeness in which case you could accept it but must ensure it is publicly registered. However, you do not need to register gifts and hospitality which are not related to your role as a councillor, such as Christmas gifts from your friends and family. It is also important to note that it is appropriate to accept normal expenses and hospitality associated with your duties as a councillor. If you are unsure, do contact your Monitoring Officer for guidance.

Appendix A – The Seven Principles of Public Life

The principles are:

Selflessness

Holders of public office should act solely in terms of the public interest.

Integrity

Holders of public office must avoid placing themselves under any obligation to people or organisations that might try inappropriately to influence them in their work. They should not act or take decisions in order to gain financial or other material benefits for themselves, their family, or their friends. They must disclose and resolve any interests and relationships.

Objectivity

Holders of public office must act and take decisions impartially, fairly and on merit, using the best evidence and without discrimination or bias.

Accountability

Holders of public office are accountable to the public for their decisions and actions and must submit themselves to the scrutiny necessary to ensure this.

Openness

Holders of public office should act and take decisions in an open and transparent manner. Information should not be withheld from the public unless there are clear and lawful reasons for so doing.

Honesty

Holders of public office should be truthful.

Leadership

Holders of public office should exhibit these principles in their own behaviour. They should actively promote and robustly support the principles and be willing to challenge poor behaviour wherever it occurs.

Appendix B Registering Interests

Within 28 days of becoming a member or your re-election or re-appointment to office you must register with the Monitoring Officer the interests which fall within the categories set out in Table 1 (Disclosable Pecuniary Interests) which are as described in “The Relevant Authorities (Disclosable Pecuniary Interests) Regulations 2012”. You should also register details of your other personal interests which fall within the categories set out in Table 2 (Other Registerable Interests).

“Disclosable Pecuniary Interest” means an interest of yourself, or of your partner if you are aware of your partner's interest, within the descriptions set out in Table 1 below.

“Partner” means a spouse or civil partner, or a person with whom you are living as husband or wife, or a person with whom you are living as if you are civil partners.

1. You must ensure that your register of interests is kept up-to-date and within 28 days of becoming aware of any new interest, or of any change to a registered interest, notify the Monitoring Officer.
2. A ‘sensitive interest’ is as an interest which, if disclosed, could lead to the councillor, or a person connected with the councillor, being subject to violence or intimidation.
3. Where you have a ‘sensitive interest’ you must notify the Monitoring Officer with the reasons why you believe it is a sensitive interest. If the Monitoring Officer agrees they will withhold the interest from the public register.

Non participation in case of disclosable pecuniary interest

4. Where a matter arises at a meeting which directly relates to one of your Disclosable Pecuniary Interests as set out in Table 1, you must disclose the interest, not participate in any discussion or vote on the matter and must not remain in the room unless you have been granted a dispensation. If it is a ‘sensitive interest’, you do not have to disclose the nature of the interest, just that you have an interest. Dispensation may be granted in limited circumstances, to enable you to participate and vote on a matter in which you have a disclosable pecuniary interest.
5. Where you have a disclosable pecuniary interest on a matter to be considered or is being considered by you as a Cabinet member in exercise of your executive function, you must notify the Monitoring Officer of the interest and must not take any steps or further steps in the matter apart from arranging for someone else to deal with it

Disclosure of Other Registerable Interests

6. Where a matter arises at a meeting which directly relates to the financial interest or wellbeing of one of your Other Registerable Interests (as set out in Table 2), you must disclose the interest. You may speak on the matter only if members of the public are also allowed to speak at the meeting but otherwise must not take part in any discussion or vote on the matter and must not remain in the room unless you have been granted a dispensation. If it is a 'sensitive interest', you do not have to disclose the nature of the interest.

Disclosure of Non-Registerable Interests

7. Where a matter arises at a meeting which directly relates to your financial interest or well-being (and is not a Disclosable Pecuniary Interest set out in Table 1) or a financial interest or well-being of a relative or close associate, you must disclose the interest. You may speak on the matter only if members of the public are also allowed to speak at the meeting. Otherwise you must not take part in any discussion or vote on the matter and must not remain in the room unless you have been granted a dispensation. If it is a 'sensitive interest', you do not have to disclose the nature of the interest.
8. Where a matter arises at a meeting which affects –
 - a) your own financial interest or well-being;
 - b) a financial interest or well-being of a relative or close associate; or
 - c) a financial interest or wellbeing of a body included under Other Registrable Interests as set out in Table 2 you must disclose the interest. In order to determine whether you can remain in the meeting after disclosing your interest the following test should be applied.

9. Where a matter (referred to in paragraph 8 above) affects the financial interest or well-being:
 - a) to a greater extent than it affects the financial interests of the majority of inhabitants of the ward affected by the decision and;
 - b) a reasonable member of the public knowing all the facts would believe that it would affect your view of the wider public interest.

You may speak on the matter only if members of the public are also allowed to speak at the meeting. Otherwise you must not take part in any discussion or vote on the matter and must not remain in the room unless you have been granted a dispensation.

If it is a 'sensitive interest', you do not have to disclose the nature of the interest.

10. Where you have an Other Registerable Interest or Non-Registerable Interest on a matter to be considered or is being considered by you as a Cabinet member in exercise of your executive function, you must notify the Monitoring Officer of the interest and must not take any steps or further steps in the matter apart from arranging for someone else to deal with it.

Appendix C – the Committee on Standards in Public Life

The LGA has undertaken this review whilst the Government continues to consider the recommendations made by the Committee on Standards in Public Life in their report on Local Government Ethical Standards. If the Government chooses to implement any of the recommendations, this could require a change to this Code. The recommendations cover:

- ❖ Recommendations for changes to the Localism Act 2011 to clarify in law when the Code of Conduct applies
- ❖ The introduction of sanctions
- ❖ An appeals process through the Local Government Ombudsman
- ❖ Changes to the Relevant Authorities (Disclosable Pecuniary Interests) Regulations 2012
- ❖ Updates to the Local Government Transparency Code
- ❖ Changes to the role and responsibilities of the Independent Person
- ❖ That the criminal offences in the Localism Act 2011 relating to Disclosable Pecuniary Interests should be abolished

The Local Government Ethical Standards report also includes Best Practice recommendations.

These are:

Best practice 1: Local authorities should include prohibitions on bullying and harassment in codes of conduct. These should include a definition of bullying and harassment, supplemented with a list of examples of the sort of behaviour covered by such a definition.

Best practice 2: Councils should include provisions in their code of conduct requiring councillors to comply with any formal standards investigation and prohibiting trivial or malicious allegations by councillors.

Best practice 3: Principal authorities should review their code of conduct each year and regularly seek, where possible, the views of the public, community organisations and neighbouring authorities.

Best practice 4: An authority's code should be readily accessible to both councillors and the public, in a prominent position on a council's website and available in council premises.

Best practice 5: Local authorities should update their gifts and hospitality register at least once per quarter, and publish it in an accessible format, such as CSV.

Best practice 6: Councils should publish a clear and straightforward public interest test against which allegations are filtered.

Best practice 7: Local authorities should have access to at least two Independent Persons.

Best practice 8: An Independent Person should be consulted as to whether to undertake a formal investigation on an allegation, and should be given the option to review and comment on allegations which the responsible officer is minded to dismiss as being without merit, vexatious, or trivial.

Best practice 9: Where a local authority makes a decision on an allegation of misconduct following a formal investigation, a decision notice should be published as soon as possible on its website, including a brief statement of facts, the provisions of the code engaged by the allegations, the view of the Independent Person, the reasoning of the decision-maker, and any sanction applied.

Best practice 10: A local authority should have straightforward and accessible guidance on its website on how to make a complaint under the code of conduct, the process for handling complaints, and estimated timescales for investigations and outcomes.

Best practice 11: Formal standards complaints about the conduct of a parish Councillor towards a clerk should be made by the chair or by the parish council, rather than the clerk in all but exceptional circumstances.

Best practice 12: Monitoring Officers' roles should include providing advice, support and management of investigations and adjudications on alleged breaches to parish councils within the remit of the principal authority. They should be provided with adequate training, corporate support and resources to undertake this work.

Best practice 13: A local authority should have procedures in place to address any conflicts of interest when undertaking a standards investigation. Possible steps should include asking the Monitoring Officer from a different authority to undertake the investigation.

Best practice 14: Councils should report on separate bodies they have set up or which they own as part of their annual governance statement and give a full picture of their relationship with those bodies. Separate bodies created by local authorities should abide by the Nolan principle of openness and publish their board agendas and minutes and annual reports in an accessible place.

Best practice 15: Senior officers should meet regularly with political group leaders or group whips to discuss standards issues. The LGA has committed to reviewing the Code on an annual basis to ensure it is still fit for purpose.

COMPLAINTS PROCEDURE FLOWCHART

MEMBERS' PLANNING CODE OF GOOD PRACTICE

INTRODUCTION

The aim of this shortened version of the code of good practice is to ensure that in the operation of the planning process there are no grounds for suggesting that a decision has been biased, partial or not well founded in any way.

The key purpose of planning is to control the development and use of land in the public interest. Your role as a member of the Planning Authority is to make all planning decisions openly, impartially, with sound judgement and for justifiable reasons.

If you have any doubts about the application of this Code to your own circumstances you should seek advice early, from the Monitoring Officer or one of her staff, preferably well before any meeting takes place.

1. Relationship to the Members' Code of Conduct

- ◆ Do apply the rules in the Members' Code of Conduct first and then apply the rules in the Planning Code of Good Practice, which seek to explain and supplement the Members' Code of Conduct for the purposes of dealing with all planning matters.

2. Development Proposals and Interests under the Members' Code

- ◆ Do disclose the existence and nature of your interest at any relevant meeting, including informal meetings or discussions with employees and other members.
- ◆ Do then act accordingly. Where your interest is a disclosable pecuniary interest:-
 - Do disclose the interest and withdraw immediately from the room or chamber where a meeting is being held for the duration of any discussion and/or voting in the matter.
 - Don't attempt to improperly influence the meeting.
 - Don't get involved in the processing of the application.
 - Don't seek or accept any preferential treatment or place yourself in a position that could lead the public to think you are receiving preferential treatment, because of your position as a councillor.
 - Do be aware that, whilst you are not prevented from seeking to explain and justify a proposal in which you have a disclosable pecuniary interest to an appropriate officer, in person or in writing, the Code places greater limitations on you in representing that proposal than would apply to a normal member of the public.

- Do notify the Monitoring Officer in writing of your own interest (your own application or one submitted by your spouse/partner or other direct relative) and note that:
 - notification to the Monitoring Officer should be made no later than submission of the application;
 - the application will always be submitted to the Development Management Committee for determination and not dealt with by officers under delegated powers; and
 - it is advisable that you employ an agent to act on your behalf on the proposal in dealing with officers.

3. Fettering Discretion in the Planning Process

- ◆ Don't fetter your discretion and therefore your ability to participate in planning decision-making at the Council by making up your mind, or clearly appearing to have made up your mind on how you will vote on any planning matter prior to formal consideration of the matter at the meeting of the planning authority and of hearing the officer's presentation and evidence and arguments on both sides.
 - ◆ Do be aware that you are likely to have fettered your discretion where the Council is the landowner, developer or applicant and you have acted as, or could be perceived as being, a chief advocate for a proposal.
 - ◆ Do also be aware that, whilst the Members' Code of Conduct provides for a presumption that you may regard yourself as not having a disclosable pecuniary interest in matters which relate to the organisations mentioned below:
 - another local or public authority of which you are a member; or
 - a body to which you have been appointed or nominated by the Council as its representative
- you must exercise your discretion in deciding whether or not to participate in each case and where:
- you have been significantly involved in the preparation, submission or advocacy of a planning proposal on behalf of such a body; or

- you are a trustee or company director of the body submitting the proposal and were appointed by the Council
 - you would be advised always to disclose a non-pecuniary interest and may consider whether it would be appropriate for you to withdraw from the meeting.
- ◆ Do consider yourself able to take part in the debate on a proposal when acting as part of a consultee body (where you are also a member of the town or parish council, for example, or both a district and county councillor), provided:
 - the proposal/policy does not substantially affect the well-being or financial standing of the consultee body;
 - you make it clear to the consultee body that:
 - your views are expressed on the limited information then before you;
 - you must reserve judgement and the independence to make up your own mind on each separate proposal, based on your overriding duty to the whole community and not just to the people in that area, ward or parish, as and when it comes before the Development Management Committee or the District Council and you have had the opportunity to consider all of the relevant information. and
 - you will not in any way commit yourself as to how you or others may vote when the proposal comes before the Development Management Committee or the District Council; and
 - you disclose the non-pecuniary interest regarding your membership or role when the Development Management Committee or District Council comes to consider the proposal.
- ◆ Don't speak and vote on a proposal where you have fettered your discretion. You do not also have to withdraw, but it would be preferable for you to do so.
- ◆ Do explain that you do not intend to speak and vote because you have or you could reasonably be perceived as having judged (or reserve the right to judge) the matter elsewhere, so that this may be recorded in the minutes.
- ◆ Do take the opportunity to exercise your separate speaking rights as a member under the Council Procedure Rules where you have represented your views or those of local electors before the meeting and fettered your discretion, but do not have a disclosable pecuniary interest. Where you do:

- you must give written notice to and obtain the prior permission of the Chair that you wish to speak in this capacity before the meeting commences;
- remove yourself from the member seating area for the duration of that item, and
- ensure that your actions are recorded.

4. Contact with Applicants, Developers and Objectors

- ◆ Do refer those who approach you for planning, procedural or technical advice to officers.
- ◆ Do try and avoid any meeting with applicants, developers or groups of objectors unless it has been organised by Officers.

In addition, and in respect of presentations by applicants/developers:

- ◆ Do try and avoid attending a planning presentation unless an Officer is present and/or it has been organised by officers.
- ◆ Do ask relevant questions for the purposes of clarifying your understanding of the proposals but do not express any strong view or state how you or other members might vote.

5. Lobbying of Councillors

- ◆ Do explain to those lobbying or attempting to lobby you that, whilst you can listen to what is said, you cannot express an intention to vote one way or another or such a firm point of view that it amounts to the same thing.
- ◆ Do remember that your overriding duty is to the whole community not just to the people in your ward.
- ◆ Don't accept gifts or hospitality from any person involved in or affected by a planning proposal.
- ◆ Do copy or pass on any lobbying correspondence you receive to the Chief Planning Officer, Head of Development or Planning Service Manager (Development Management) at the earliest opportunity.
- ◆ Do inform the Monitoring Officer where you feel you have been exposed to undue or excessive lobbying or approaches (including inappropriate offers of gifts or hospitality), who will in turn advise the appropriate officers to follow the matter up.

- ◆ Do note that, unless you have a disclosable pecuniary interest, you will not have fettered your discretion or breached this Planning Code of Good Practice through:
 - listening or receiving viewpoints from residents or other interested parties as long as you make yourself equally available to those of differing viewpoints if requested to do so;
 - making comments to residents, interested parties, other members or appropriate officers, provided they do not consist of or amount to pre-judging the issue and you make clear you are keeping an open mind; or
 - seeking information through appropriate channels.

6. Lobbying by Councillors

- ◆ Don't become a member of, lead or represent an organisation whose primary purpose is to lobby to promote or oppose planning proposals.
- ◆ Do join general interest groups which reflect your areas of interest and which concentrate on issues beyond particular planning proposals, but disclose a non-pecuniary interest where that organisation has made representations on a particular proposal and make it clear to that organisation and the Development Management Committee or Council that you have reserved judgement and the independence to make up your own mind on each separate proposal.
- ◆ Don't lobby fellow members in advance of the meeting at which any planning decision is to be taken.
- ◆ Don't decide or discuss how to vote on any planning matter at any sort of political group meeting or lobby any other member to do so.

7. Site Visits

- ◆ Do try to attend site visits organised by the Council where possible.
- ◆ Do ask the officers at the site visit questions or seek clarification from them on matters which are relevant to the site inspection.
- ◆ Don't hear representations from any other party with the exception of a ward member.
- ◆ Don't express opinions or views to anyone.
- ◆ Don't enter a site which is subject to a proposal other than as part of an official site visit or by invitation. If you feel it is essential to accept an invitation to visit a site other than through attending an official site visit do exercise caution and ensure you comply with these good practice rules.

8. Public Speaking at Meetings

- ◆ Don't allow members of the public to communicate with you during the Development Management Committee or Council's proceedings (orally or in writing) as this may give the appearance of bias.
- ◆ Do ensure that you comply with the Council's procedures in respect of public speaking.

9. Officers

- ◆ Don't put pressure on officers to put forward a particular recommendation.
- ◆ Do recognise and respect that officers involved in the processing and determination of planning matters must act in accordance with the Council's Code of Conduct for Employees and their professional codes of conduct, primarily the Royal Town Planning Institute's Code of Professional Conduct.

10. Decision-Making

- ◆ Do come to meetings with an open mind and demonstrate that you are open-minded.
- ◆ Do comply with section 38(6) of the Planning and Compulsory Purchase Act 2004 and, where regard is to be had to the Development Plan, make decisions in accordance with the Development Plan unless material considerations indicate otherwise.
- ◆ Do come to your decision only after due consideration of all of the information reasonably required upon which to base a decision.
- ◆ Don't vote or take part in the meeting's discussion on a proposal unless you have been present to hear the entire debate, including the officers' introduction to the matter.
- ◆ Do make sure that if you are proposing, seconding or supporting a decision contrary to officer recommendations or the development plan that you clearly identify and understand the planning reasons leading to this conclusion/decision. These reasons must be given prior to the vote and be recorded. Be aware that you may have to justify the resulting decision by giving evidence in the event of any challenge.

11. Training

- ◆ Training on planning matters will be provided and updated as necessary. Specialised training is mandatory for Members who wish to serve on the Development Management Committee.

MEMBERS' LICENSING CODE OF GOOD PRACTICE

BACKGROUND

The enactment of the Licensing Act 2003 and Gambling Act 2005 transferred substantial additional responsibilities for licensing to local government and established the Council as the licensing authority for the regulation of various forms of licensable activities. These responsibilities are undertaken by the Licensing Committee and its sub-committees. However, the Council has other licensing responsibilities that are undertaken by the Licensing and Protection Committee and associated application sub-groups. Whichever the forum, Members are acting in a quasi-judicial capacity in carrying out the Council's licensing functions.

This Code of Good Practice is designed to apply the principles contained in the Members Code of Conduct to Members' licensing responsibilities and to support and maintain high ethical standards in local government. It applies to the actions of the Council both in its statutory capacity as the licensing authority via the Licensing Committee and its non-executive functions that are the responsibility of the Licensing and Protection Committee. For the purposes of this Code, the Council is collectively described as the licensing authority.

This Code has regard to both the Members Planning Code of Good Practice previously adopted by the Council and LACORS' guidance on the role of elected members in relation to Licensing Committee hearings under the Licensing Act 2003.

INTRODUCTION

The aim of the Code is to ensure that in the operation of the licensing process there are no grounds for suggesting that a decision has been biased, partial or not well founded in any way.

The key purpose of licensing is to regulate certain activities in the public interest and to promote the licensing objectives defined in the legislation. In addition, the authority must have regard to statutory guidance issued by the Secretary of State and the Gambling Commission.

Your role as a member of the licensing authority is to make decisions openly, impartially, with sound judgement and for justifiable reasons.

This Code of Good Practice also applies to Members at all times when involving themselves in the licensing process. It applies equally to licensing enforcement and licensing policy issues as it does to licensing applications. This includes taking part in decision-making meetings of the licensing authority and when involved in less formal occasions, such as meetings with officers or the public and consultative meetings.

References to officers in this Code of Good Practice relate to employees of the Council.

If you have any doubts about the application of this Code to your own circumstances you should seek advice early, from the Monitoring Officer or one of his/her staff, preferably well before any meeting takes place.

1. Relationship to the Members' Code of Conduct

- ◆ Do apply the rules in the Members' Code of Conduct first: these must always be complied with.
- ◆ Do then apply the rules in this Licensing Code of Good Practice, which seek to explain and supplement the Members' Code of Conduct for the purposes of dealing with all licensing matters. If you do not abide by this Code of Good Practice, you may put:
 - the licensing authority at risk of proceedings as to the legality or maladministration of the related decision; and
 - yourself at risk of either being named in an Ombudsman's report made to the Corporate Governance Committee or Council or, if the failure is also likely to be a breach of the Code of Conduct, a complaint to the Monitoring Officer.

2. Licensing Proposals and Interests under the Members' Code

Your interest in a licensing matter may take a variety of forms. As a member of the Cabinet or the relevant executive councillor, you may have either collective or individual responsibility for premises in the Council's ownership or a licensable activity which the Council is promoting for which a licence is required or has already been granted. You may be a member of another organisation or body that is applying for a licence or is carrying out a licensable activity. You may be an employee of a responsible authority defined in the legislation or you may be an interested party because you live or have business premises in the vicinity of an application site or licensed premises. You may be a member of a lobby group or campaign. You may be the applicant for a licence or the provider of a licensable activity yourself or a member of a registered club that is doing so. You may be a supplier of goods to an applicant or an existing licensee or club or you may act in some capacity on their behalf. You may also be an existing licensee or a member of a club whose business may be affected if a licence or club premises certificate is granted for a similar activity elsewhere.

Whatever your interest,

- ◆ Do disclose the existence and nature of your interest at any relevant meeting, including informal meetings or discussions with employees and other members.
- ◆ Do then act accordingly.
- ◆ Where your interest is a disclosable pecuniary interest:-

- Do disclose the interest and withdraw immediately from the room or chamber where a meeting is being held for the duration of any discussion and/or voting in the matter.
- Don't participate, or give the appearance of trying to participate, in the making of any decision on the matter by the licensing authority.
- Don't represent an applicant or responsible authority at a licensing sub-committee hearing or applications sub-group meeting.
- Don't try to represent an interested party if you have played an active role in supporting or opposing an application for a licence. Ask another member to do so in your place.
Don't get involved in the processing of the application or the review of a licence or certificate that has already been issued.
- Don't seek or accept any preferential treatment or place yourself in a position that could lead the public to think you are receiving preferential treatment, because of your position as a councillor. This would include, where you have a disclosable pecuniary interest in a proposal, using your position to discuss that proposal with officers or members when other members of the public would not have the same opportunity to do so.
- Do be aware that, whilst you are not prevented from seeking to explain and justify a proposal in which you have a disclosable pecuniary interest to an appropriate officer, in person or in writing, the Code places greater limitations on you in representing that proposal than would apply to a normal member of the public. (For example, where you have a disclosable pecuniary interest in a proposal to be put before a hearing or meeting, you will have to withdraw from the room or chamber whilst the hearing or meeting considers it, whereas an ordinary member of the public would be able to observe the meeting's consideration of it from the public gallery.)
- Do notify the Monitoring Officer in writing of your own interest and note that:
 - notification to the Monitoring Officer should be made no later than submission of the application; and
 - it is advisable that you employ an agent to act on your behalf on the proposal in dealing with officers.

3. Fettering Discretion in the Licensing Process

- ◆ Don't fetter your discretion and therefore your ability to participate in licensing decision-making by making up your mind, or clearly appearing to have made up your mind (particularly in relation to an external interest or lobby group), as to how you will vote on any licensing matter prior to its formal consideration at a hearing or meeting of the licensing authority and hearing the representations and evidence on both sides. Fettering your discretion in this way and then taking part in the decision will put the licensing authority at risk of a finding of maladministration and of legal proceedings on the grounds of there being a danger of bias or pre-determination or a failure to take into account all of the factors enabling the proposal to be considered on its merits.
- ◆ Do be aware that you are likely to have fettered your discretion where the Council is the landowner, developer or applicant and you have acted as, or could be perceived as being, a chief advocate for a proposal. (This is more than a matter of membership of both the proposing and licensing determination bodies, but because through your significant personal involvement in preparing or advocating the proposal you will be, or could be perceived by the public as being, no longer able to act impartially or to determine the proposal purely on its licensing merits.)

- ◆ Do also be aware that, whilst the Members' Code of Conduct provides for a presumption that you may regard yourself as not having a disclosable pecuniary interest in matters which relate to the organisations mentioned below -
 - another local or public authority of which you are a member; or
 - a body to which you have been appointed or nominated by the Council as its representative.

You must exercise your discretion in deciding whether or not to participate in each case and where:

- you have been significantly involved in the preparation, submission or advocacy of a licensing proposal or in an activity that has been licensed on behalf of such a body; or
- you are a trustee or company director of the body submitting the proposal and were appointed by the Council.

You should always disclose the interest and consider whether it is appropriate to withdraw from the meeting.

- ◆ Don't sit as a member of a licensing sub-committee if the applicant lives or the premises are situated in the Ward that you represent or if an application is being made to review a licence or certificate held by a resident or premises in your Ward.
- ◆ Don't sit as a member of a licensing sub-committee where you have fettered your discretion. Because of the limited size of licensing sub-committees, you should advise officers as soon as it becomes apparent to you that you have fettered your discretion and certainly before the meeting commences to enable an alternative sub-committee to be convened. You do not have to withdraw from the room where the meeting is taking place, but it would be preferable for you to do so.
- ◆ Do take the opportunity (if you not sitting on the licensing sub-committee or you do not have a personal and prejudicial interest) to exercise your rights as a member to speak on behalf of an applicant or interested person even if you have represented your views or those of others before the meeting and fettered your discretion.

4. Contact with Applicants, Developers and Objectors

- ◆ Do refer those who approach you for licensing, procedural or technical advice to officers.
- ◆ Don't attend any meeting with applicants or interested parties if you are a member of a sub-committee. Pre-application discussions, if held for clarification purpose will involve officers only who will ensure that those present are advised from the start that the discussions will not bind the authority to any particular course of action, that the meeting is properly recorded on the application file and the record of the meeting is disclosed when the application is considered by the sub-committee.
- ◆ Do otherwise meet with an applicant or interested party if you are considering representing their interests or speaking on their behalf at a hearing of a sub-committee of which you are not a member.

5. Lobbying of Councillors

- ◆ Do explain, if you are a member of a sub-committee or sub-group, to those who may be attempting to lobby you that you cannot listen to what is said as this will prejudice your impartiality and therefore your ability to participate in the decision making process.
- ◆ Do remember that, as a member of the Licensing Committee or Licensing and Protection Committee, you will probably be unaware whether an application will be determined by a sub-committee or whether you will be a member of that determining body until you have been notified by officers. If you have been lobbied by an applicant or interested party, you should notify officers as soon as it comes to your attention that you have been invited to sit on a relevant sub-committee. In such circumstances, you should not take part in that hearing or meeting and officers will make arrangements for the application to be dealt with by another sub-committee or for another member to take your place on a sub- group.
- ◆ Don't feel constrained, if you are not a member of a sub-committee, to receive an approach from an applicant or interested party and, having considered the information that they have supplied, to agree to speak or make representations on their behalf at a meeting of a sub-committee.
- ◆ Do remember, if you are a member of a sub-committee, that your overriding duty is to the whole community and, taking account of the need to make decisions impartially, that you should not improperly favour, or appear to improperly favour, any person, company, group or locality.
- ◆ Don't accept gifts or hospitality from any person involved in or affected by a licensing application or who may be providing a licensable activity. If a degree of hospitality is entirely unavoidable, ensure it is of a minimum; its acceptance is declared as soon as possible and remember to register the gift or hospitality with the Monitoring Officer where its value is over £50 in accordance with the Members' Code of Conduct.
- ◆ Do copy or pass on any lobbying correspondence you receive if you are a member of a sub-committee to the Elections and Democratic Services or Licensing Manager at the earliest opportunity in order that it can be placed on the appropriate licensing file and is open for inspection before a decision is made.
- ◆ Do inform the Monitoring Officer where you feel you have been exposed to undue or excessive lobbying or approaches (including inappropriate offers of gifts or hospitality), who will in turn advise the appropriate officers to follow the matter up.
- ◆ Do note that, unless you are a member of a sub-committee or you have a disclosable pecuniary interest, you will not have fettered your discretion or breached this Licensing Code of Good Practice through:
 - listening or receiving viewpoints from residents or other interested parties as long as you make yourself equally available to those of differing viewpoints if requested to do so;
 - making comments to residents, interested parties, other members or appropriate officers, provided they do not consist of or amount to pre-judging the issue and you make clear you are keeping an open mind; or
 - seeking information through appropriate channels

6. Lobbying by Councillors

- ◆ Don't become a member of, lead or represent an organisation whose primary purpose is to lobby to promote or oppose licensing proposals. If you do, you will have fettered your discretion and are likely to have a personal and prejudicial interest and have to withdraw.
- ◆ Do join general interest groups which reflect your areas of interest and which concentrate on issues beyond particular licensing proposals, such as a local civic society, but disclose a personal interest where that organisation has made representations on a particular proposal and make it clear to that organisation and the licensing authority that you have reserved judgement and the independence to make up your own mind on each separate proposal.
- ◆ Don't excessively lobby fellow members regarding your concerns or views nor attempt to persuade them how they should vote in advance of the meeting at which any licensing decision is to be taken.
- ◆ Don't decide or discuss how to vote on any licensing application or policy matter at any sort of political group meeting or lobby any other member to do so. Political group meetings should never dictate how members should vote on any licensing issue.

7. Site Visits

- ◆ Do try to attend site visits organised by the licensing authority if you are a member of the Licensing Sub-Committee or the Licensing and Protection Sub-Committee. If you are unable to take part in a site visit, you will be unable to take part in the Sub-Committee hearing. You should therefore notify the Elections and Democratic Services Manager as soon as it comes to your attention that you are unable to attend a site visit that has been organised. Where a site visit takes place, Members will be accompanied by officers of the authority.
- ◆ Do ensure that you treat the site visit only as an opportunity to observe the site.
- ◆ Do ask the officers at the site visit questions or seek clarification from them on matters which are relevant to the site inspection.
- ◆ Don't hear representations from the applicant or an interested party at the site visit. Where you are approached by the applicant or an interested party, direct them to or inform the officer present.
- ◆ Don't express opinions or views to anyone.
- ◆ Do exercise your discretion, if you are not a member of the sub-committee as to whether to accept an invitation to visit a site which is the subject of an application or provides a licensable activity. Where you do accept an invitation, do exercise caution and ensure you comply with these good practice rules.

8. Public Speaking at Meetings

- ◆ Don't allow members of the public to communicate with you in isolation if you are a member of a sub-committee during the hearing or meeting proceedings (orally or in writing) as this may give the appearance of bias.

9. Officers

- ◆ Don't put pressure on officers to put forward a particular recommendation. (This does not prevent you from asking questions or submitting views to the Elections and Democratic Services Manager and Licensing Manager but hearing or meeting reports will contain only representations that have been submitted in the manner prescribed by the legislation. Your attention is drawn to the danger of fettering your discretion on a matter which is covered in Section 3 of this Code.)

- ◆ Do recognise that officers are part of a management structure and discuss a proposal, outside of any arranged meeting, only with the Elections and Democratic Services Manager or Licensing Manager or those officers who are authorised by them to deal with the proposal at a member level.
- ◆ Do recognise and respect that officers involved in the processing and determination of licensing matters must act in accordance with the Council's Code of Conduct for Employees and the requirements of the licensing legislation. As a result, licensing officers' views, opinions and recommendations will be presented on the basis of their overriding obligation of professional independence and the promotion of licensing objectives, which may on occasion be at odds with the views or opinions of members.

10. Decision-Making

- ◆ Do come to meetings with an open mind and demonstrate that you are open-minded.
- ◆ Do comply with the licensing legislation and make decisions in accordance with statutory licensing objectives, having regard to guidance that has been issued under the relevant legislation and the authority's statement of licensing policy.
- ◆ Do come to your decision only after due consideration of all of the information reasonably required upon which to base a decision. If you feel there is insufficient time to digest new information or that there is simply insufficient information before you, request that further information and, if necessary, adjourn the hearing or meeting until the information has been provided and you have had an opportunity to consider it.
- ◆ Don't vote or take part in the hearing or meeting on a proposal unless you have been present to hear the entire debate, including the officers' introduction to the matter.
- ◆ Do make sure that if you are proposing, seconding or supporting a decision contrary to the licensing objectives or the statutory guidance issued by the Secretary of State or Gambling Committee or the authority's statement of licensing objectives, that you clearly identify and understand the reasons leading to this conclusion/decision. These reasons must be given prior to the vote being taken and be recorded. Be aware that you may have to justify the resulting decision by giving evidence in the event of any challenge

11. Training

- ◆ Training on licensing matters will be provided and updated as necessary. All Members should endeavour to receive training to enable them to carry out their role properly and effectively. Specialised training is mandatory for Members who wish to serve on the Licensing and Protection Committee /Licensing Committee. A review of training undertaken by Members of the Committees will be maintained by the Elections and Democratic Services Manager.

MEMBER/OFFICER PROTOCOL

1. Introduction

- 1.1 Government guidance for the preparation of local authority constitutions refers to the perceived requirement for a protocol to underpin member/officer relations. This accords with the recommendations of the Nolan Committee's Report on Standards of Conduct in Local Government that every local authority should have its own written statement or protocol governing relations between members and officers.
- 1.2 The guidance suggests that protocols should be developed locally to reflect local political arrangements and approaches but gives an indication of those areas that are expected to be covered in each protocol. In adopting this protocol, the Council has had regard to broad headings proposed in the guidance.
- 1.3 The purpose of this protocol is to guide members and employees of the Council in their relationships with one another. It is not intended to be prescriptive or comprehensive and seeks simply to offer guidance on some of the issues that most commonly arise.

2. Principles Underlying Member/Employee Relations

- 2.1 The Nolan Report suggests that 'No local authority can function properly without a good relationship between its councillors and its officers. Where the relationship breaks down, an atmosphere of suspicion or dislike can make it very difficult to devise and implement policies in any consistent way.' The general principles which govern the conduct of members (selflessness, honesty and integrity, objectivity, accountability, openness, personal judgement, respect for others, duty to uphold the law, stewardship and leadership) which are embodied in The Relevant Authorities (General Principles) Order 2001 require members to respect the impartiality and integrity of an authority's statutory officers and other employees. Those principles are equally appropriate for employees in their dealings with members.
- 2.2 This protocol should also be read in conjunction with the Members Code of Conduct and Employees Code of Conduct which are designed to ensure high standards of conduct and probity within the Council. Together they contribute to the effective and efficient transaction of Council business and ensuring that the Council is not brought into disrepute. Public confidence in the integrity and honesty of both members and employees is critical to the Council's community leadership role and compliance with the Codes and this Protocol will serve to enhance local democracy.

3. The Roles of Members and Employees

- 3.1 The roles of members and employees have changed with the Local Government Act 2000 and the introduction of executive decision-making – on occasions by individual members as opposed to collectively in committee. The greater impact upon the time of individual members brought about by the new system, together with the introduction of pensionable allowances, have tended to blur the traditional distinction between the roles of members and employees. Nevertheless, members and employees do have separate roles which should be readily distinguishable. These are defined more specifically in the Council's constitution.

- 32 Members are democratically elected and are accountable to the electorate for their actions. An important feature of each member's role is to represent the interests of his/her constituents, irrespective of how they may have voted in an election. The expectation is that members will be more aware of the views of their constituents on major policy developments before decisions are taken collectively at full Council meetings. The Executive Leader and other executive councillors are responsible for the delivery of those policies. Members who sit on overview and scrutiny have an important role in both holding the executive to account and in contributing to policy development. Members of regulatory committees make decisions on applications by the public for permissions and licences of varying types.
- 33 Employees are responsible for day-to-day managerial and operational decisions within the Council and should provide support to both the executive and all members in their several roles. They are employed by and accountable to the Council as a whole. The Cabinet system can create tensions and conflicts of interest for employees servicing both the executive and overview and scrutiny and the executive and the Council. Members should recognise the potential difficulties that this can present and should respect the obligation placed on employees to serve the Council as a whole.
- 34 In this protocol, any reference to a senior officer is a reference to the Head of Paid Service, Corporate Directors, Assistant Directors and Heads of Service as defined in the Council's constitution.
- 35 Certain employees, commonly referred to as "statutory officers", derive some duties and responsibilities directly from legislation. The Council's statutory officers are –
- ◆ the Head of the Paid Service is the Council's principal adviser on matters of general policy;
 - ◆ the Council's Monitoring Officer is required to report on any proposals, decisions or omissions which in his view are likely to result in a contravention of the law or which fail to comply with legal duties, are unjust or fail to take account of an applicable code of practice; and
 - ◆ the Section 151 Officer who as the Council's Chief Financial Adviser is required to report on any proposal, decision or course of action which would involve incurring unlawful expenditure, or is unlawful or is likely to cause a loss or deficiency or if the Council was proposing to enter an item of account unlawfully.
- 36 There may be occasions when a Statutory Officer's responsibilities may conflict or not wholly correspond with a strategy, policy, decision or course of action proposed/taken by the Council or a member. In those circumstances members should acknowledge the primacy of the statutory responsibilities and treat the Statutory Officer with the same courtesy and respect shown to them and to other employees in all other dealings.

4. Employer/Employee Issues

- 4.1 Any dealings between members and employees should be conducted with mutual respect, trust and courtesy. Members should recognise and have due regard to their role as an employer in their dealings with employees and be conscious that inappropriate conduct or behaviour on their part could lead to a case being brought to an employment tribunal by an aggrieved employee. It is proper for a member to make written or oral representations about a matter affecting a constituent who also happens to be an employee but he/she should avoid taking a proactive part or represent or act as an advocate on behalf of the employee in any disciplinary or grievance procedures brought against the Council by the employee.

- 42 Members should not place inappropriate pressure on employees and must ensure that all communication between them (including written communication) does not bring the Council into disrepute, cause any embarrassment to them, or lead to a breakdown of mutual trust, respect and courtesy in member/employee relations.
- 43 In seeking advice and support, members should recognise that, whilst those employees owe an overriding duty to the Council as a whole, such duties are first expressed to their respective line managers and the Head of Paid Service and not to an individual member. For this reason, members should not give direct instructions to employees, unless they are authorised to do so by the Council's constitutional arrangements. If so authorised, instructions should, under normal circumstances, still be given to a senior officer and not to a more junior employee.
- 44 In particular, members and employees should promote equality by not discriminating unlawfully or otherwise against any person. They should treat people with respect, regardless of their race, age, religion, gender, sexual orientation or disability. Such principles will apply equally to the implementation of personnel and other policies, recruitment and promotion as they apply to day to day dealings with members of the public.

5. Personal Relationships

- 51 Guidance on personal relationships is contained in the Codes of Conduct. Provided these are observed, more informal exchanges may be appropriate between members and employees outside business meetings and formal events.
- 52 It is important that there should be a close working relationship between executive councillors, chairmen and leaders of political parties with the Head of Paid Service, Corporate Directors, Assistant Directors and Senior Officers. However, such relationships should never be allowed to become so close, or appear to be so close, as to bring into question the issue of impartiality into doubt.

6. Relationships between Cabinet and Employees

- 61 Any decision by an executive councillor or collectively by the Cabinet must be supported by a written report by the appropriate employee. An employee's obligation to the whole Council requires the advice to be tendered professionally and impartially and executive councillors should not seek to suppress or amend any aspect of such professional advice.
- 62 Reports to the Cabinet will normally be produced by employees but there may be occasions when an executive councillor prepares a report. In either situation, the appropriate employee shall place on record his/her professional advice to the Cabinet and ensure that advice is considered when a decision is taken.

- 6.3 As part of their duties, employees will represent (both internally and externally) the decisions of the Cabinet or an individual executive councillor. Other members should recognise that, in doing so, an employee is representing an executive decision of the Council.

7. Relationships between Overview and Scrutiny and Employees

- 7.1 Overview and scrutiny plays an important role within the Council in holding the executive to account and in the formulation of policy. The Council has a post exclusively to support the overview and scrutiny process but the Panels may seek the advice of the Monitoring Officer and the Responsible Financial Officer where they consider there is doubt about the legality or financial probity of any decisions or prospective decisions of the executive or where these may be contrary to the Council's policy and financial framework.

- 7.2 When requiring employees to give evidence to an Overview and Scrutiny Panel, the Panel and its Chair shall not, without the consent of a Chief Executive Officer or a senior officer, request the attendance of a junior employee. When employees are required to give evidence before an Overview and Scrutiny Panel, questions should be confined, so far as is possible, to questions of fact and explanation of any professional opinion relating to policies and decisions. Employees must respond to questions from members in an open, constructive and helpful manner. Employees must not be misleading or economical with the truth in their answers. The Chair of an Overview and Scrutiny Panel shall ensure that executive councillors and employees are not questioned (whether through the nature, tone or language used) in such a manner as could be considered by a reasonable person to be hostile, offensive, derogatory, harassing, bullying, discriminatory or otherwise unacceptable or inappropriate.

- 7.3 Where they consider it appropriate, the Chairmen of the Overview and Scrutiny Panels may ask the Head of Paid Service, Corporate Directors, Assistant Directors and Senior Officers to explain any advice given to executive councillors and explain any decision(s) that they may have taken under the Council's scheme of delegation. Any private or confidential matter must be dealt with in a private or confidential manner.

8. Relationships between Other Panels and Employees

- 8.1 Decisions made by other Panels, Committees etc. must be taken collectively, normally following the receipt and consideration of a report by the appropriate employee. Such advice will be independent and professional. Because of the nature of the business conducted by the Development Management Committee, a separate Code of Conduct for Planning has been approved by the Council.

9. Relationships between Political Groups and Employees

- 9.1 Political groups comprising members of an individual political party are a recognised feature of local government and it is common practice for such groups to give preliminary consideration to matters of business in advance of their consideration by a relevant Council body.

- 92 Employees will not attend group meetings of District Council political parties.
- 93 Employee support to members of political groups must not extend beyond providing information in relation to matters of Council business. When giving advice in such circumstances, employees must demonstrate political impartiality and must not suppress their professional advice in the face of political views. Employees must not champion, defend, action or spend any resources of the Council on, or be held responsible for actioning in any way whatsoever, the decisions of a political group, unless and until such decisions have become the formal decisions of the Council and any consequential provision has been made in the Council's Medium Term Plans and/or Revenue Budget.

10. Relationships between Individual Members and Employees

- 10.1 The Executive Leader, Deputy Executive Leader, Executive Councillor, Panel/Committee Chair, Group Leader or such other members nominated by a Group Leader may request a briefing from the Head of Paid Service, Corporate Directors or senior officer on matters of policy which have already been or may be discussed by the Council or within its decision-making or advisory processes. All such requests should be addressed to the appropriate senior officer.
- 10.2 Local members have an important role to play in representing the Council in their constituencies, responding to the concerns of their constituents, in meetings with partners and when serving on outside organisations. It is essential for the efficient functioning of the Council that members should be fully informed about matters on which they may be required to make decisions or which affect their wards. Senior Officers should ensure that all relevant staff are aware of the requirement to keep local members informed and that, as far as practicable, the timing of such information allows members to contribute to those decisions. Local members shall also be kept informed about matters affecting their wards during the formative stages of policy development. Whenever a public meeting is organised by the Council to consider a local issue, all of the members representing the ward(s) affected should as a matter of course be invited to the meeting.

10.3 Members will be asked by their constituents, from time to time, to pursue matters on their behalf. Where such matters affect the Council, a member may request information or advice from the appropriate employee and such a request should only be refused if a member cannot demonstrate a 'need to know' – see paragraph 11.2 post. Such action is without prejudice to the right of a member to raise an item at any meeting of the Cabinet or another committee and particularly an Overview and Scrutiny Panel.

11. Access to Documents and Information

11.1 A member's right to access to documents and information is described in the Access to Information Procedure Rules in the Council's constitution.

11.2 In addition, a member has a right to inspect Council documents so far as his/her access to the documents is reasonable and necessary to enable the member properly to perform his/her duties as a member of the Council. This principle is commonly referred to as the 'need to know' principle. It applies equally to the leaders of political party groups who, although they may be able more readily to substantiate a requirement for information, still have to demonstrate that their request is proper and reasonable and give adequate reasons for requiring the information. Access to such information will vary from member to member and will arise at different times. As such, a member's 'need to know' will be considered on a case by case basis and will not last indefinitely.

11.3 The right of access to information is subject to an additional safeguard and if the motive of the member in requesting to see documents is indirect, improper or ulterior, a request to inspect documents will be refused. Furthermore, the law does not entitle a member to go on a 'roving or fishing expedition' or to receive every working document that employees have access to or may have had access to in the past.

11.4 A member is only entitled to see those documents that are relevant background papers mentioned in any report to a meeting or which are to be taken into consideration in the making of an executive decision by an executive councillor or a key decision by an employee or where information would be available under the Freedom of Information Act 2000. However, an Overview and Scrutiny panel may request information that is exempt or confidential if it relates to a matter that they are scrutinising.

11.5 Confidential information that is obtained by a member must not be disclosed to another person. Any such breach of confidence may result in a complaint to the Monitoring Officer or, if sufficiently serious, to a civil action against the member and/or the Council for damages.

12. Relations with the Media

12.1 The Council's current structure is designed to raise the public and media profile of executive councillors and to make the members of the Cabinet both collectively and individually directly accountable for the decisions taken. Media support and presentation by employees will reflect this principle and advice to executive councillors in relation to the media will be provided if required.

12.2 The Chair of Overview and Scrutiny Panels shall ensure that all media statements relating to that function have the support of the relevant Panel. Any such statements must be consistent with the Council's intent that the overview and scrutiny function shall help to achieve a culture of continuous improvement throughout the Council.

- 123 The Council's Communications Team and other employees will assist other non-Cabinet members in their relations with the media. Any employee assisting a member with media relations must act at all times in the interests of the whole Council and in a politically impartial manner. Other than factual statements, members should not seek assistance from an employee with the preparation or issue of any media statement that will adversely affect the reputation of the Council.
- 124 Members are also reminded of the need to comply with the Code of Recommended Practice on Local Authority Publicity issued by the Secretary of State, a copy of which is available on request and on the intranet.

13. Other Support

- 13.1 Members are provided with a range of information and communication equipment and other support services to assist them in their policy and representative roles. Members should not use such equipment and support in connection with party political or campaigning activity or for purposes not related to Council business.

14. Arbitration

- 14.1 Where necessary, the Head of Paid Service (or in her absence the Monitoring Officer) will arbitrate on the interpretation of this protocol.

PROTOCOL FOR THE RELATIONSHIP BETWEEN THE EXECUTIVE LEADER OF THE COUNCIL AND THE HEAD OF PAID SERVICE

1. THE NEED FOR A PROTOCOL

- 1.1 The CIPFA/Solace publication on 'Good Governance in Local Government' forms the framework for the Council's Code of Governance. It recommends the development of a protocol to ensure that the Executive Leader and Head of the Council's Paid Service negotiate their respective roles early in their relationship and that a shared understanding of roles and objectives is maintained.
- 1.2 The Council acknowledges that a successful working relationship is critical to its success and the achievement of its policies and strategies both in terms of the authority itself and its relationship with partners. Both roles are defined in legislation and in the Council's constitution which should be read in conjunction with this protocol. A mutual understanding of each other's responsibilities, especially as incumbents change, is key to the development of respect, tolerance and a shared appreciation of their respective roles both individually and to set the tone for good member/employee relationships throughout the authority.

2. SHARED VALUES

- 2.1 The Nolan Committee's Report on Standards of Conduct in Local Government which provides the backdrop for improved standards of conduct in local government saw a need for a written statement or protocol governing relations between members and officers. The Committee commented in their final report that 'one particular area that gave us cause for concern was the potential for improper behaviour if the normal professional relationship between member and officer became unsatisfactory by being too comfortable or too combative'. That is especially appropriate in the case of the Executive Leader and Head of Paid Service.
- 2.2 Member standards of conduct are now governed by the Members Code of Conduct based upon the statutory model code. Employee standards are set by the Employees Code of Conduct. A protocol on member/employee relations, again embodied in the constitution, sets out the importance of effective relationships but there is a danger that these will founder if a good example is not set at the highest level by the Executive Leader and Head of Paid Service.2.3 Mutual respect and trust should be founded on the ten principles of public life which the Executive Leader and Head of Paid Service have undertaken to uphold. The principles, which apply equally to members and employees

- 23 In addition, the Council has adopted a series of policies that apply equally to the roles of the member and employee which includes a dignity at work policy and corporate equality policy.
- 24 The Executive Leader and the Head of Paid Service subscribe to those general principles and policies which underpin the high standards of behaviour and relationships necessary for the Council to offer effective leadership in the community and fulfil its statutory functions.
- 25 All dealings between the Executive Leader and the Head of Paid Service should be conducted with mutual respect, trust, honesty and courtesy. Neither should place inappropriate pressure on the other and, in their dealings with each other, they should not do anything that brings the Council into disrepute, cause any embarrassment either to themselves or the Council or lead to a breakdown in member/employee relations.
- 26 The roles of each are defined in legislation but it is the sum of the parts that makes the unique partnership that is effective local government. In furtherance of that principle, the Executive Leader and Head of Paid Service undertake to recognise –
- The need for a close working relationship
 - The requirement for an understanding of each other's roles and responsibilities
 - The desirability of regular liaison through both formal and informal means
 - The importance of effective communication
 - A respect for each other's views, advice, guidance and integrity
 - The need for openness and mutual understanding
 - The desirability of maintaining impartiality and independence of role
 - The need to avoid bias and prejudice
 - The need to demonstrate effective leadership and their responsibility to set an example for others
 - That any tensions that arise in their relationship need to be resolved swiftly and amicably
- 27 In addition, they acknowledge –
- The Executive Leader's position as leader of the majority political party group
 - The Head of Paid Service's wider role to serve the Council and members as a whole, irrespective of political party.
- 28 To assist in that mutual recognition of each other's roles and responsibilities, these are summarised below.

3. THE ROLE OF THE EXECUTIVE LEADER

- 3.1 The Council has chosen to adopt the executive leader and cabinet model of executive arrangements under the Local Government Act 2000, as amended by the Local Government and Public Involvement in Health Act 2007.
- 3.2 Under these arrangements, the Executive Leader is elected by the Council from among its membership for a four year term or until his term of office comes to an end as a councillor or he is removed from office by the Council, whichever is the earliest. The Executive Leader's primary functions are to –

- Arrange for the discharge of the executive functions of the Council, including the arrangements for executive responsibilities
- Appoint a Deputy Executive Leader of the Council
- Determine the size and membership of the Cabinet
- Act as chair of meetings of the Cabinet
- Provide the political leadership of the Council
- Act as the leader of his (usually the majority) political party group

3.3 These are explained in greater detail in Article 7 and the Cabinet Procedure Rules contained in the Council's constitution.

3.4 The Executive Leader is responsible for ensuring that the Council promotes the economic, social and environmental well-being of Huntingdonshire and its inhabitants and its development through the effective exercise of collective and individual responsibilities within the Council's decision-making processes.

3.5 Through the effective operation of the Cabinet, the Executive Leader is accountable for -

- Proposing the Council's policy framework and setting priorities and objectives
- Overseeing the implementation of policies and strategies to achieve priorities and objectives
- Proposing the Council's budget to achieve its objectives
- Managing the process for allocating resources to policy priorities
- Ensuring the Council fulfils its statutory duties
- Creating strategic frameworks for effective partnership working
- Publishing a Notice of Executive Decisions of future executive decisions
- Making policy decisions in an open and accountable way
- Ensuring continuous improvement in service standards and monitoring performance
- Providing political leadership of the Council
- Communicating and advocating the Council's priorities, objectives and decisions.

3.6 The Head of Paid Service, as principal policy adviser, will ensure that the Executive Leader and Cabinet are provided with the appropriate advice and information to enable them to take informed decisions and they will have regard to such advice in reaching their decisions.

3.7 As leader of a party political group, the Executive Leader will not seek advice from the Head of Paid Service in relation to party political business and will not expect the Head of Paid Service nor any of his staff to attend a meeting of the political group.

3.8 The Executive Leader has no line management responsibilities for Council employees who are responsible to the Council as a whole. Any concerns over the performance of employees either individually or collectively will be referred by the Executive Leader to the Head of Paid Service to address as he considers appropriate. Matters relating to the appointment, dismissal and disciplinary action in respect of employees are contained in the Officer Employment Procedure Rules set out in the Council's constitution. However, the Executive Leader, in conjunction with other leading Members, is responsible for the annual assessment of the performance of the Head of Paid Service and in the award of performance related salary increments.

4. THE ROLE OF THE HEAD OF PAID SERVICE

- 4.1 The Head of Paid Service has overall corporate management and strategic responsibility for the Council and its delivery of services as defined in Article 12 of the Council's constitution. S/he is responsible for the provision of professional and impartial advice to all aspects of the decision-making process and is accountable to the Council for the implementation of strategies, policies and decisions.
- 4.2 The Head of the Paid Service of the Council has certain defined responsibilities under the Local Government and Housing Act 1989 to report on –
- The co-ordination of the discharge of the Council's functions
 - The level, organisation, grades and management of employees required to discharge those functions.
- 4.3 The Head of Paid Service acts as the Council's proper officer under the Local Government Act 1972 and a variety of other legislation. The Chief Executive Officer acts as the Electoral Registration Officer for the purposes of electoral administration arrangements. S/he also carries the separate appointment of Returning Officer for the purpose of elections to the Council.
- 4.4 The Head of Paid Service is accountable to the Council as a whole. His/Her post is politically restricted inasmuch as she is not permitted to be an elected member of another authority. While this does not prevent the Head of Paid Service from being a member of a political party, it is recognised that this is inadvisable if she is to maintain a politically impartial role in advising the Council. As such, the Head of Paid Service is required to work effectively with all elected members within the Cabinet and Scrutiny system of governance and to be able to demonstrate political sensitivity and an ability to interpret political will.
- 4.5 The Head of Paid Service's performance will be monitored annually by the Executive Leader and other leading members under the Council's performance related pay scheme and his/her terms and conditions of employment are defined in the Officer Employment Procedure rules.
- 4.6 The Head of Paid Service has responsibility for promoting community cohesion and undertaking an overview of the Council's strategies by translating them into service plans and practical actions, gaining corporate support and ensuring compliance. The Head of Paid Service has leadership responsibility for overseeing the Council's statutory responsibilities under the Race Relations (Amendment) Act 2000 to eliminate unlawful discrimination, promote equal opportunities and promote good relations between people from different racial groups.
- 4.7 The Head of Paid Service is responsible for ensuring that the following key values and behaviours approved by the Council are upheld and complied with both personally and by the Council's employees –

- Putting the customer first, both internally and externally
- Valuing, respecting and protecting dignity
- A willingness to challenge and change
- Delivering excellence and value for money

5. PUBLICITY

- 5.1 The Council has a Communications Strategy that deals with relations with the media and its customers. It is acknowledged that one of the intentions of the current legislative requirements for governance arrangements is to raise the profile of the executive and make the Executive Leader and Cabinet accountable for their decisions and actions. It follows that media presentation and media support will reflect this. Advice to the Executive Leader in relation to the media will be provided on a confidential basis if requested. Any employee assisting the Executive Leader with media relations will act at all times in the interests of the whole Council and in a politically impartial manner.
- 5.2 In particular, the Executive Leader and the Head of Paid Service will have regard to any applicable Local Authority Code of Publicity made under the Local Government Act 1986.
