

Public Space Protection Order (Dog Control)

Sections 59 to 75 of the Anti-social Behaviour, Crime and Policing Act 2014

HUNTINGDONSHIRE DISTRICT COUNCIL
ANTI-SOCIAL BEHAVIOUR, CRIME AND POLICING ACT 2014
SECTIONS 59 TO 75
PUBLIC SPACES PROTECTION ORDER – DOG CONTROL 2026
HUNTINGDONSHIRE

Citation and Commencement

1. This order may be cited as the Huntingdonshire Dog Control Public Spaces Protection Order 2026 (“the Order”)
2. This order is made by Huntingdonshire District Council (“the Council”) under sections 59 to 75 of the Anti-social Behaviour, Crime and Policing Act 2014 (“the 2014 Act”)
3. This Order shall renew on (DATE) and shall remain in force for a period of three years unless varied, extended or discharged in accordance with the provisions of the 2014 Act.

For the purpose of HDC’s PSPO for Dog Control (2026), anti-social behaviour is considered to be behaviour of a person in charge of a dog on public land, which:

- A. Has had, or is likely to have, a detrimental effect on the quality of life of those in the locality;
- B. Is, or is likely to be, persistent or continuing in nature; and
- C. Is, or is likely to be, unreasonable

Specifically, the HDC PSPO for Dog Control (2026) aims to tackle dog-related anti-social behaviour in relation to:

- A. Dog faeces
- B. Dogs out of control
- C. Dogs on lead
- D. Dog prohibited locations

1. The Areas to which the PSPO applies:

Public Space Protection Order (Dog Control)

Sections 59 to 75 of the Anti-social Behaviour, Crime and Policing Act 2014

This PSPO relates to public land within the administrative District of Huntingdonshire.

For the purpose of this PSPO, 'public land' includes:

- A. All land which is open to the air, and
 - i. Which public have access to (with or without payment)
- B. All road carriageways with a speed limit of 40 mph or less
- C. All footpaths and verges
- D. Registered common land
- E. Registered town or village greens
- F. Open access land, including
 - i. All bridleways & footpaths which allow public access through otherwise private land
- G. Any land with implied permission which is owned by a Local Authority, or body acting on its behalf.
- H. Specific locations to which this PSPO applies are listed in Schedule 1 and 2 of this PSPO.

2. Persons who the PSPO applies to:

A person is responsible for their compliance with this PSPO if they are in charge / control of a dog whilst regularly visiting, residing, or working within the District of Huntingdonshire. This PSPO only applies to a person whose behaviour is:

- A. likely to be persistent or continuous in nature,
- B. unreasonable, and
- C. detrimental to the quality of life of those in the locality

Additionally, the PSPO does not apply to:

- A. An assistance dog which has been trained to assist a person who has a prescribed disability, in accordance with the Equalities Act (2010)
 - i. This includes trained psychiatric assistance dogs to assist a disabled person who relies on a trained assistance dog to mitigate a mental health condition in the same way that a physically disabled person with an assistance dog might.

Sections 59 to 75 of the Anti-social Behaviour, Crime and Policing Act 2014

3. Authorised Officer

An authorised officer means:

- c) A Police Constable;
- c) A Police Community Support Officer;
- c) A person authorised in writing by Huntingdonshire District Council for the purposes of enforcing this Order.

4. Penalty on breach

It is an offence for a person, without reasonable excuse to:

- A. Do anything that the person is prohibited from doing by HDC's PSPO for Dog Control (2026)
- B. Fail to comply with a requirement, to which the person is subject to under HDC's PSPO for Dog Control (2026)

Breach is a criminal offence. Enforcement Officers have the option to issue a fixed penalty notice of up to £100 if appropriate.

If the case proceeds to court, offenders may receive a fine of up to £1000 on prosecution and conviction.

Part Two: Conditions of the Public Space Protection Order for Dog Control

The conditions of this PSPO are set to impose the following prohibitions and requirements on land to which this PSPO applies, specified as follows:

1. Dog Faeces

A. Removing from the Land:

On any public land, a person commits an offence if they are in charge of any dog(s) and fail to remove its faeces from the land before leaving the area, unless:

- i. The person in charge of the dog(s) can evidence a reasonable excuse for failing to do so; or

For the purpose of this PSPO:

- ii. Disposing of the faeces inside a dedicated dog waste bin which is provided for this purpose, is a sufficient removal from the land.

Public Space Protection Order (Dog Control)

Sections 59 to 75 of the Anti-social Behaviour, Crime and Policing Act 2014

- iii. It is not a reasonable excuse to fail to remove faeces if a person is in charge of a dog but unaware that the dog has defecated.

B. Carrying a suitable means for picking up dog faeces:

On all public land, a person commits an offence if they are in charge of any dog(s) and fail on instruction by an Authorised Officer (Police, Local Authority, or other delegated persons) to demonstrate they are carrying suitable means for picking up and disposing of dog faeces.

- i. Suitability of the means for picking up dog faeces is to be determined by the Authorised Officer.

2. Dogs Out of Control

A. Damaging or destroying another animal

On all public land, a person commits an offence if they are in charge of any dog(s) and fail to take reasonable steps to prevent the dog(s) from damaging or destroying any other animal(s), whether domestic or wild unless:

- i. The person in charge of the dog(s) can evidence a reasonable excuse for failing to do so
- ii. The owner/keeper of the damaged or destroyed domesticated animal seeks alternative civil resolution for the incident through payment for any medical/veterinarian treatment and does not wish for PSPO enforcement action to be taken.

B. Causing Alarm and/or Distress

On all public land, a person commits an offence if they are in charge of any dog(s) and fail to take reasonable steps to prevent the dog(s) from being out of control in a way which causes alarm and/or distress to a person, unless:

- i. The person in charge of the dog(s) can evidence a reasonable excuse for failing to do so

Sections 59 to 75 of the Anti-social Behaviour, Crime and Policing Act 2014

C. Dog(s) Repeatedly Straying

On all public land, a person commits an offence if they fail to prevent any dog(s) which they are in charge of from straying. For the purpose of this PSPO, a stray dog is defined as “a dog that is in a public place and not under the charge of a keeper”.

3. Dogs on LeadA. Specified Dogs on Lead Areas:

On all land specified in Schedule 1, a person commits an offence if they are in charge of any dog(s) and fail at any time to keep their dog under control and on lead, unless:

- i. The person in charge of the dog(s) can evidence a reasonable excuse for failing to do so.

B. Upon Request by an Authorised Officer:

On all land specified in Schedule 1, a person commits an offence if they are in charge of any dog(s) and upon instruction by an Authorised Officer (Police, Local Authority, or other delegated persons) fail to put their dog on lead, unless:

- i. The person in charge of the dog(s) can evidence a reasonable excuse for failing to do so.
- ii. In relation to the HDC PSPO for Dog Control (2026), an Authorised Officer will give instruction to place a dog on lead on any Schedule 1 land if they consider it to be necessary to prevent anti-social behaviour.

4. Dog Prohibited Locations

A. A person commits an offence if they are in charge of any dog(s) and fail at any time to prevent the dog(s) from entering any part of land specified in Schedule 2, unless:

- i. The person in charge of the dog(s) can evidence a reasonable excuse for failing to do so.

Sections 59 to 75 of the Anti-social Behaviour, Crime and Policing Act 2014

Part Three: Lawful Threshold of the Public Space Protection Order (Dog Control)*1. Conditions and Justification Statement:

HDC is satisfied that the conditions set out in Section 59 and 72 of 'the Act' have been met and justifies the restrictions imposed by this PSPO. HDC believe that it is reasonable to impose the above prohibitions and requirements in order to prevent the detrimental effect from continuing, occurring, or recurring, and to reduce that detrimental effect or to reduce the risk of its continuance, occurrence, or recurrence.

2. Appeals against PSPO

Any 'interested person' (a person which this PSPO applies to), who desires to question the validity of this PSPO on the grounds that HDC has no power to make it or that any requirements of the Act have not been complied with in relation to this PSPO, may apply to the High Court within six weeks from the date upon which this PSPO is made.

- A. An 'interested person' will be excluded from challenging the validity of the PSPO (including a decision to vary the PSPO) by way of judicial review (see: s.66(7) of the Act).
- B. Other persons who fall outside the definition of an 'interested person' will have the right to bring a judicial review to challenge the lawfulness of the use of power to make the PSPO.
